Sustainability Planning and Collaboration in Rural Canada Lars K. Hallström,Mary A. Beckie,Glen Hvenegaard,Karsten Mündel,2016-05-16 Rural communities often the first indicators of economic downturns play an important role in planning for development and sustainability Increasingly these communities are compelled to reimagine the paths that lead not only to economic success but also to the cultural social environmental and institutional pillars of sustainability As the contributors to this volume demonstrate there are many examples of such innovation and creativity and many communities that seek out new ways to build the collaboration capacity and autonomy necessary to survive and flourish Contributors Don Alexander Kirstine Baccar Michael Barr Mary A Beckie Moira J Calder Meredith Carter Yolande E Chan Sean Connelly Jon Corbett Anthony Davis Jeff A Dixon David J A Douglas Roger Epp Kelly Green Lars K Hallstr m Greg Halseth Casey Hamilton Karen Houle Glen T Hvenegaard Melanie Irvine Bernie Jones Robert Keenan Rhonda Koster Ryan Lane Sean Markey Shelly McMann L Jane McMillan Morgan E Moffitt Karen Morrison Karsten Mündel Craig Pollett Kerry Prosper Mark Roseland Laura Ryser Claire Sanders Jennifer Sumner Kelly Vodden Marc von der Gonna Shayne Wright

Demands of Expanding Populations and Development Planning Frederic R. Siegel,2008-08-03

Population Answering the Needs and Demands The world's human population is 6.6 billion people and growing by 80 million in 2005 Most of the growth is in less developed nations The Population Reference Bureau 2006 estimates that the global population will reach 7.9 billion people by 2025 It is projected to stabilize at 9.2 billion people by 2050 Governments strive to attract industrial manufacturing services and other projects to advance their economies and thus cope with existing social and political problems and future challenges heightened by expanding populations They are encouraged in these efforts by international lending and development organizations such as the World Bank and the International Finance Corporation These and other multilateral regional and sub regional development banks make funds available for economic and social improvement programs in developing countries Table p 1 Well planned projects can stimulate economic growth and create wealth in a society This wealth can be used to promote the health education and general welfare status of its members and their employment opportunities even as populations expand There are many theories that define and expound on economic development Malizia and Feser 1999 summarize the theories in terms of their essential dynamics strengths and weaknesses and how they are applied to achieve growth All theories agree that economic advancement is based on investing capital in projects that can flourish and yield financial gain over extended periods of time

Sustainable Urban Agriculture and Food Planning Rob Roggema, 2016-08-12 As urban populations rise rapidly and concerns about food security increase interest in urban agriculture has been renewed in both developed and developing countries This book focuses on the sustainable development of urban agriculture and its relationship to food planning in cities It brings together the best revised and updated papers from the Sixth Association of European Schools of Planning AESOP conference on Sustainable Food Planning The main emphasis is on the latest research and thinking on spatial planning and design showing how urban agriculture provides opportunities to develop and enhance the spatial quality of urban environments Chapters address various topics such as a new theoretical model for understanding urban agriculture how urban agriculture contributes to restoring our connections to nature and the limitations of the garden city concept to food security Case studies are included from several European countries including Bulgaria France Germany Italy Netherlands Romania Spain Turkey and the UK as well as Australia Canada Cameroon Ethiopia and the United States New York and Los Angeles

Local government planning for community food systems Raja, S.; Sweeney, E.; Mui, Y.; Frimpong Boamah, E., Over the last couple of decades local governments have started taking action to address food system challenges Many innovative food policies have taken place in cities in particular However despite major developments spearheaded by visionary local leaders and communities in recent years local governments in low and middle income countries LMICs continue to face major challenges in integrating food security nutrition and sustainable food systems in their agenda This publication introduces a new knowledge base for understanding food planning and governance processes and models in local governments of low and middle income countries a valuable counterbalance to the prevailing literature and experience from high income countries It provides practical
