Wartime cinema, Englishness and propaganda Ina Habermann,2025-09-30 This book provides a fresh analysis of the wartime work of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger and their team the Archers It argues that in their earlier work Powell and Pressburger should be seen as middlebrow storytellers whose stories explore national identity in times of war Their wartime work is discussed in four phases the first phase covers their contributions to the phoney war the second traces their engagement with the people s war The third phase sees the Archers move beyond propaganda towards melodramas of Englishness The fourth phase dramatizes post war preoccupations with an increasing focus on memory and trauma The book also looks at Pressburger s later work including his two published novels Killing a Mouse on Sunday and The Glass Pearls

Tales of the Samurai James Seguin De Benneville,1916

A Matter of Life and Death Ian Christie,2019-07-25 A dazzling fantasy produced in the aftermath of World War Two A Matter of Life and Death 1946 directed by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger starred David Niven as an RAF pilot poised between life and death This book looks in detail at the making of the film Ian Christie shows how the film drew on many sources and traditions to create a unique form of modern masque treating contemporary issues with witty allegory and enormous visual imagination He believes the film deserves to be thought of as one of cinema s greatest achievement

Movie Medievalism Nickolas Haydock,2014-01-10 This work offers a theoretical introduction to the portrayal of medievalism in popular film Employing the techniques of film criticism and theory it moves beyond the simple identification of error toward a poetics of this type of film sensitive to both cinema history and to the role these films play in constructing what the author terms the medieval imaginary The opening two chapters introduce the rapidly burgeoning field of medieval film studies viewed through the lenses of Lacanian psychoanalysis and the Deleuzian philosophy of the time image The first chapter explores how a vast array of films including both auteur cinema and popular movies contributes to the modern vision of life in the Middle Ages while the second is concerned with how time itself functions in cinematic representations of the medieval. The remaining five chapters offer detailed considerations of specific examples of representations of medievalism in recent films including First Knight, A Knight's Tale, The Messenger, The Story of Joan of Arc, Kingdom of Heaven, King Arthur, Night Watch, and The Da Vinci Code. The book also surveys important benchmarks in the development of Deleuze's time image from classic examples like Bergman's The Seventh Seal and Kurosawa's Kagemusha through contemporary popular cinema in order to trace how movie medievalism constructs images of the multivalence of time in memory and representation.
