Tidnings Kvinnan:

Feminism in Finnish Print Media, 1968-1985 Heidi Kurvinen, 2024-12-20 This book focuses on the discussion of the women's liberation movement and feminism in Finnish print media between 1968 and 1985. By analysing this topic, the book demonstrates that a relatively well-developed state of gender equality in a society does not necessarily result in fertile ground for feminist activism. On the contrary, it may hinder the success of more radical claims presented by feminists, and mass media serves as a central player in this. Consequently, the book enhances our understanding of the mechanisms that prevent societies from reaching complete equality, and it shows how cultural specificities influence the ways in which transnational ideas of feminism are adopted in a local context. This is shown by analysing the dialogic relationship between journalists and feminist activists, as well as the mediated negotiations of the meanings of feminism within the women's movement.

During the 1960s, 54 women were admitted into the priesthood. This book tells the story of these pioneers through an analysis of their own personal narratives. Viewed through the dual analytical lens of the theological concept of vocation and the social theorist Axel Honneth's concept of recognition, these narratives provide a rich and complex picture of a groundbreaking reform that complements and challenges established historical narratives and contributes to the understanding of similar processes of change in other churches. Hon var en vlybsfull ogift kvinna under det patriarkala 1800-talssamhällets slut, som intresserade sig för tidens frågor och engagerade sig djupt i kvinnosaken. Det fick också konsekvenser för hennes privatliv. Genom hennes testamente grundades Samfundet De Nio, där varannan ledamot ska vara kvinna och vars uppgifter är att främja den svenska skönlitteraturen. Anna Williams
