The Politics of Ratification of EU Treaties Carlos Closa,2013-09-02 Since its inception the European Union EU has revised its foundational treaties several times resulting in national ratification processes involving different actors with varying success This book focuses on the politics of ratification of EU Treaties and reviews the processes of ratification of EU primary legislation Existing research and academic debate on EU constitutional politics have almost exclusively focussed on negotiation of new treaties and their institutional setting However this book explains how the result of ratification was achieved and analyses the strategy that actors pursue across Europe Ratification of the Treaty of Maastricht and the EU Constitution failed totally whilst other ratification can be considered partial failures such as the Irish Nice and Lisbon referendums As the EU Constitution has proved the ratification process may have deep effects unforeseen during the processes of negotiation In recent years ratification has produced some of the most intense debates on national membership of the EU and the EU itself The Politics of Ratification of EU Treaties will be of interest to students and researchers of European Studies European Union studies European Union Law and European Union Politics      Federal Register ,1981-06-08      The Voice of the People; Or, the History of Political Issues in the United States ... W. conference held at the University of Luxembourg in November 2016 under the auspices of the ATOZ Chair for European and International Taxation. The book covers the central questions arising in national law and tax policy, explores the regulatory and tax framework of the European Union (EU) and discusses the multifaceted interactions of both national and EU law with bilateral tax treaties. Through fourteen chapters following a brief introduction, leading academic experts and practising specialists provide decisive insight into the regulatory regime for European investment funds, the tax law and reforms in both Luxembourg and Germany, the role of the European Commission's State aid practices, examples of case law concerning the application of non-discrimination rules to various investment vehicles, the impact of tax-specific EU legislation such as the Parent Subsidiary Directive, the Tax Merger Directive, and the Anti-Tax Avoidance Directive, the availability of tax treaty protection for different collective and non-collective investment funds, the impact of base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS) developments on the taxation of cross-border investments, the value added tax (VAT) treatment of investment funds and their managers, and the consequences of the global drive towards automatic exchange of information relating to existing cross-border investment structures. With its particular focus on Luxembourg, the leading centre for investment funds in Europe and second only to the United States globally, and thus an instructive model for domestic level investment fund regulation and taxation, this volume reveals the common issues that arise in virtually every other jurisdiction with a sizeable fund industry. As the first in-depth treatment of the globally significant nexus between investment funds and taxation, the book will prove valuable to policymakers, practitioners, and academics in both financial services and tax law.
