Tree Stories:

The Little Fig-tree Stories Mary Hallock Foote, 2022-04-06 Excerpt There is a garden on a hill slope between the snows of the Sierra Nevada and the warm rich valleys of the coast It is in that region of Northern California where the pine belt and the fruit belt interlace Both pine and fruit trees grow in that mountain garden and there in the new moon of February six young Almond trees burst into flower The Peach and Plum trees in the upper garden felt a glow of sympathy with their forward sisters of the south but the matronly Cherry trees shook their heads at such an untimely show of blossoms They foresaw the trouble to come The Almond trees they said will lose their fruit buds this year as they did last and the year before Poor things they are so emotional The first whisper of spring that wanders up the foothills sets them all aflame out they rush with their hearts on their sleeves for the frosts to peck at But what can one do If you try to reason with them Our parents and grandparents always bloomed in February they will tell you and they did not lose their fruit buds
