James Albert Richards

Thread Of Life:

The Thread of Life Douglas W. Hollan, Jane C. Wellenkamp, 1996-09-01 This is an enjoyably readable and generally illuminating look at the more intimate side of Toraja life and relationships It is an innovative approach to ethnography valuable in its attempt to deal with aspects of life that are often passed over in more conventional ethnographic writing Journal of Asian Studies

The Thread of Life Richard Wollheim, 1985-01-31 This book is based on the William James Lectures delivered at Harvard University in 1982 It offers a new approach to the philosophical understanding of a person taking as fundamental the process of living as a person and emphasising the continuity and development across time of an individual life

Breaking the Thread of Life Robert Barry, 2017-07-28 Suicide and how civilized people should respond to it is an increasingly controversial topic in modern society In Holland suicide is the third leading cause of death of people between the ages of fifteen and forty In the United States it is the second leading cause of death among older teenagers Laws prohibiting assisted suicide are being directly and boldly confronted by activists in the United States most notably Jack Kevorkian Meanwhile the American Civil Liberties Union has publicly declared suicide a fundamental human right that should be protected under the Constitution The Hemlock Society has introduced referenda in California Washington and Oregon to legalize suicide and assisted suicide The most vocal opposition to these initiatives has come from the Roman Catholic church Breaking the Thread of Life marshalls philosophical moral medical historical and theological arguments in support of the Roman Catholic position against suicide In a comprehensive study of the history of suicide Barry shows that Christian civilization was one of only a few early societies that was able to bring suicide under control He counters claims that Catholicism and the Bible endorse rational suicide Barry also analyzes arguments in support of the rationality of suicide and illuminates their biases inadequacies and dangers Barry presents the rationale for the Roman Catholic church's strong extensive and articulate opposition to efforts to gain legal and social endorsement of suicide and assisted suicide His book represents the most complete study of the classical Roman Catholic view of rational suicide to date and it will be of significant interest to philosophers theologians physicians and lawyers

The Thread of Flame Basil King, 1920 Without opening my eyes I guessed that it must be between five and six in the morning I was snuggled into something narrow On moving my knee abruptly it came into contact with an upright board At the same time the end of my bed rose upward so that my feet were higher than my head Then the other end rose and my head was higher than my feet A slow gentle roll threw my knee once more against the board though another slow gentle roll swung me back to my former position Far away there was a rhythmic throbbing like the beating of a pulse I knew I was on shipboard and for the moment it was all I knew Not quite awake and not quite asleep I waited as one waits in any strange bed in any strange place for the waking mind to reconnect itself with the happenings overnight Sure of this speedy re establishment I dozed again
