The Reformed Presbyterian and Covenanter ,1883 The Church Hymn Book ,1872 The life of our life. [18 pt. Pt.2, vol.2 is of the 3rd ed.]. Henry James Coleridge,1881 Popular Commentary of the Bible: Old Testament : the poetical and the prophetic books Paul Edward Kretzmann,1922 God and Necessity Brian Leftow,2012-09-06 Brian Leftow offers a theory of the possible and the necessary in which God plays the chief role and a new sort of argument for God s existence It has become usual to say that a proposition is possible just in case it is true in some possible world roughly some complete history a universe might have and necessary just if it is true in all Thus much discussion of possibility and necessity since the 1960s has focussed on the nature and existence or not of possible worlds God and Necessity holds that there are no such things nor any sort of abstract entity It assigns the metaphysical work such items usually do to God and events in God s mind and reduces broadly logical modalities to causal modalities replacing possible worlds in the semantics of modal logic with God and His mental events Leftow argues that theists are committed to theist modal theories and that the merits of a theist modal theory provide an argument for God s existence Historically almost all theist modal theories base all necessary truth on God s nature Leftow disagrees he argues that necessary truths about possible creatures and kinds of creatures are due ultimately to God s unconstrained imagination and choice On his theory it is in no sense part of the nature of God that normal zebras have stripes if that is a necessary truth Stripy zebras are simply things God thought up and they have the nature they do simply because that is how God thought of them Thus Leftow s essay in metaphysics takes a half step toward Descartes view of modal truth and presents a compelling theist theory of necessity and possibility
