Studies In Equality:

Equality Ireland. Equality Authority, 2012 Equality John Baker, K. Lynch, Sara Cantillon, Judy Walsh, 2016-05-23 How can egalitarian ideals be put into action This ground breaking book sets out a new interdisciplinary model for equality studies Integrating normative questions about the ideal of equality with empirical issues about the nature of inequality it applies a new framework to a wide range of contemporary inequalities Proposing far reaching changes in the economy politics law education and research practices it sets out innovative political strategies for achieving those aims It is an invaluable resource for both academics and activists Encyclopedia of Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Alain Klarsfeld, Stella Nkomo, Lucy Taksa, Anne-Françoise Bender, Gaëlle Cachat-Rosset, 2024-05-02 Providing comprehensive coverage of the field of diversity equality equity and inclusion DEI this timely Encyclopedia addresses significant developments in diversity management Entries adopt both theoretical and critical approaches to construct a complete picture of this crucial approach to business practice Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children Equality Studies University College, Dublin. Equality Studies Centre, 2000 Journal of Philosophical Studies , 1928 Includes section New books Engaging Black and Minority Ethnic Groups in Health Research Natalie Darko, 2022-12-13 This crucial contribution exposes the misconception that health research and health services are equally effective for all and highlights their failures in engaging with Black and Minority Ethnic BME groups Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Case Studies in Equity Diversity and Inclusion in Higher Education Elena Sandoval Lucero, Johanna Maes, 2021-03-22 Policy, Experience and Change: Cross-Cultural Reflections on Inclusive Education Len Barton, Felicity Armstrong, 2007-02-08 One of the qualities of this book is the authors engagement with personal experience This is part of the contextualising of issues within particular cultural historical and social contexts I shall begin the Foreword in the same spirit by recounting an experience that is still a foundation for analysing and developing my own understanding This happened some twenty five years ago I was going with Vic Finkelstein a disabled academic and activist to a seminar on a hot summer s day making our way across the Open University campus in Milton Keynes The seminar was entitled The Problems of Integration Making conversation with Vic I suggested that the seminar sounded interesting His response was immediate and direct no it was not interesting the problems for disabled people were the problems of segregation not the problems of integration As he did often for me Vic turned understanding on its head and his seemingly simple observation carried ever increasing ripples of critical questioning Reading of international developments and of the specifics of education policy provision and practice across the widely differing circumstances found in different nation states from the majority as well as the minority world challenges deepens and confirms understanding There are not surprisingly considerable diversities and commonalities and recurring themes that speak to both and fire critical questioning The complexities pretty quickly give food for thought and ring bells of caution The first for me is the lack of digestion the impossibility of comprehensive knowledge Transactions of the Illuminating Engineering Society, 1923 The Journal of Educational Research, 1921 Comparative Education Research and the Determinants of Educational Policy Comparative Education Society in Europe, 1963 Beyond Pictures and Pronouns Myra Sadker, 1979 Studies in Public Utility Economics Institute for Economic Research, 1930 Education Series, 1925 American Law Studies Reed, 1882 Tales of the red man George Alfred Grant-Schaefer, 1920 Higher Education and Social Stratification Torsten Husén, 1987 The social stratification process is analyzed from a theoretical point of view with assumptions tested with empirical evidence from the International Institute for Educational Planning project in developing countries or with information obtained through the researcher s prior studies on industrialized countries The significant and often negative consequences due to the problem of social stratification are discussed in relation to the educational and occupational careers of educated youth The subject is introduced by noting linkage between education and employment egalitarian policies in education and a historical perspective Egalitarian philosophies in education are considered along with aspects of the equality problem relevant to developing countries The role of formal education as a social stratifier is explored

A comparative perspective on education and social stratification in developing countries as well as differences between developed and developing countries with regard to social stratification are offered. Information is included on university graduates in developing countries focused on social background and social destination. Among the conclusions are social stratification in all societies is enhanced by competition, selectivity, and a meritocratic reward system because institutions of higher education in developing countries serve subsistence economies with a limited modern sector. Their post primary enrollment patterns have no historical parallel in the developed economies and home background in third world countries tends to have less impact on access, survival, and outcomes of secondary and higher education than in industrialized countries.
