Third Generation World Organization:

the third generation world organization Maurice Bertrand, 1989-08-11 The Third Generation World Organization 3rd Generation World Organization/E.89.Iiik.Fs/25, 1989-01-01 A New Charter for a Worldwide Organisation? Maurice Bertrand, Daniel Warner, 2023-09-14 This book is based on a meeting held in Geneva from 27 February to 1 March 1995 which challenged the fundamental conceptions behind the original United Nations by launching an entirely new Charter written by Maurice Bertrand for a worldwide organization which could replace the UN the Bretton Woods organizations and the specialised agencies The Bertrand Proposal the written commentaries which emphasize different aspects of the proposal and a summary of the discussions are published in this book The Bertrand Proposal is a major contribution to future research and analysis of international organization and organizations and to the attempts to resolve the present crisis of the international system The book concludes that since the type of threats against peace economic security and social development have changed and the international community has not formulated an adequate response it is up to a worldwide organization to try to organize the prevention of crises and conflicts United Nations Reform Eric Fawcett, Hanna Newcombe, 1996-09-12 Edward C Luck President Emeritus Senior Policy Advisor United Nations Association of the United States of America This book is important reading for anyone interested in the future of the UN It contains hundreds of reform ideas most of them sound all of them stimulating The diversity of views and subjects reflects the breadth of the UN's global agenda and the exemplary contributions Canadians have made to the world body Many of Canada's UN experts are represented here their work will remind us to look for inspiration and perspective when the going gets tough at Turtle Bay Major General Ret'd Lewis W MacKenzie First Commander UN Forces Sarajevo The 50th Anniversary of the United Nations a wake or a cause for celebration The euphoria following the signing of the UN Charter in San Francisco in 1945 soon fell victim to a 45 year Cold War Now when the oppressed and destitute of the world need it more than ever the UN finds itself handcuffed by potentially terminal systemic deficiencies Tinkering won't do major reforms are required and the plethora of relevant ideas and recommendations set forth in this book provide leaders policy makers and interested observers with much food for thought Joe Sills Spokesman for the Secretary General United Nations This valuable collection of essays covers a broad range of UN activities In addition to careful analysis it offers many suggestions for strengthening the UN as it enters its second half century Brian Urquhart Former Under Secretary General of the United Nations Scholar in Residence International Affairs Program Ford Foundation This festschrift for the 50th Anniversary of the United Nations is really something to rejoice about a stimulating readable and comprehensive set of comments on where the world organization is how it got there and where it ought to be going A breath of fresh air oxygen even for the UN on its 50th birthday Major General Indarjit Rikhye Founding President international Peace Academy and former Military Advisor to UN Secretary Generals Dag Hammarskjold and U Thant The opportunity provided by the end of the Cold War to achieve the great objectives of the UN Charter must not be missed through failures in Somalia Bosnia and Rwanda The contributors to this book with their thoughtful papers and recommendations for reform encourage belief in the possibility of reinvigoration of the UN so that the hopes placed in the organization in 1945 might after all be fulfilled Benjamin Rivlin Director Ralph Bunche Institute on the UN This book presents an honest and sober reply to the mindless critics of the United Nations who have made multilateralism the whipping boy of their own short sightedness Mindful of the UN s shortcomings this excellent collection of essays based on careful analysis points out clearly nevertheless the direction the organized world must take and the indispensable role the United Nations must play in shaping a just and peaceful future for humanity Asian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 12 (2005-2006) B.S. Chimni, Masahiro Miyoshi, Surya Subedi, 2008-01-31 The Asian Yearbook of International Law is a major refereed publication dedicated to international law issues as seen primarily from an Asian perspective This is the first publication of its kind edited by a team of leading international law scholars from across Asia The Asian Yearbook of International Law provides a forum for the publication of articles in the field of international law and other Asian international law topics written by experts from the region and elsewhere Its aim is twofold to promote international law in Asia and to provide an intellectual platform for the discussion and dissemination of Asian views and practices on contemporary international legal issues As a rule each volume of the Asian Yearbook normally contains articles notes a section on State practice an overview of the participation of Asian countries in multilateral treaties a chronicle of events and incidents surveys of the activities of international organizations which have special relevance to Asia such as a survey of the activities of the Asian African Legal Consultative Committee and book review bibliography and documents sections The Quest for World Environmental Cooperation Branislav Gosovic, 2019-03-21 First published in 1992 In 1972 the UN Conference on the Human Environment initiated the process of world environmental cooperation This study is about GEMS the Global Environment Monitoring System which the Conference recommended be set up to generate data and information necessary for worldwide environmental assessment This book examines the genesis and evolution of GEMS and the complex task involved in establishing GEMS and making it perform its functions It relates GEMS to the factors which have shaped the international environmental agenda and cooperation since 1972 In particular it highlights North South differences and the problems inherent in the international organizations belonging to the UN system vis vis the novel and multifaceted challenges involved in dealing with systemic cross sectoral nature of global environmental problems The lessons of GEMS and other issues presented in this book are highly relevant to the continuing efforts to set up effective programmes for earthwatching and to promote international environmental cooperation They also relate more broadly to the challenges of managing global interdependence and to the need to devise supporting organizational structures through reform and strengthening of the UN system The comprehensive nature of the political and institutional analyses presented in this book make it an academic reference work of lasting value Its frank tone and willingness to derive prescriptive conclusions will appeal in particular to the many actors engaged in the processes and structures of global multilateral cooperation The book will be of special use to those interested in environmental issues and international organization

The Future of the United Nations System Chadwick F. Alger,1998 What does the future hold for the UN In this book twenty two scholars from all continents contribute twelve chapters that cover prevention of violence creating economic and social structures that sustain human fulfilment sharing and protecting the commons and peace education The search for future potential based on experience in these twelve laboratories leads to sixty six recommendations for new institutions and programs on issues that include controlling weapons humanitarian intervention collaboration between UN peacekeepers and NGOs human rights economic policies advancement of women refugees ecological security communications and peace education These recommendations are brought together in a concluding chapter and summarized in the appendix Most of the recommendations do not require amendments to the UN Charter or to the treaties establishing the UN Specialized Agencies Instead their implementation would require creative efforts of Member States secretariats NGOs and dedicated individuals that are pointed toward attainment of multilateral capacity for coping with an array of global problems that increasingly threaten the quality of human life This is stimulating reading for anyone who wants to be challenged to think creatively about the potential for coping with a growing array of global problems

The Place of the United States in a World Organization for the Maintenance of Peace American Academy of Political and Social Science,1921 Routledge Library Editions: Environmental Policy Various,2021-06-23 The 11 volumes in this set originally published between 1982 and 1995 draw together research by leading academics in the area of environmental policy and provides a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine international policy impact assessment and future environmental planning This set will be of particular interest to students of Environmental Studies
