The Three Button Trick and Other Stories Nicola Barker,2018-11-13 Nicola Barker weaves humor and tragedy through this fresh and original collection as her characters struggle to find love independence and fulfillment in this new addition to the Ecco Art of the Story series Nicola Barker's collection of her nineteen most brilliant stories exemplifies her ability to create daring witty and dynamic characters all their idiosyncracies intact Barker's stories often use wordplay and humor to stretch the boundaries of metaphor and reality as the outrageously original plots unfold Through her confident and clever style these short stories sling Barker to the forefront of fiction writing as she is reminiscent of Martin Amis Julian Barnes and Margaret Atwood The collection begins with a smart tale of a teenage girl whose obsession with the size of her nose dangerously compromises her relationships with her friends and her family Inside Information is a pun of a title describing how the protagonist's unborn fetus is the only one able to reform his mother's compulsive shoplifting by pulling the ultimate prank G String and Symbiosis Class Cestoda detail women who gain self esteem albeit through quirky methods despite the cowardly men who try to suppress them The title story Three Button Trick is about a man who deliberately buttons his duffel coat incorrectly to attract sympathetic females Carrie falls for this trick and it takes twenty one years a curious friend and an eighty three year old widower for her to realize her mistake Wesley is the protagonist of a three part collection Blisters Braces and Mr Lippy who traumatized by two unfortunate incidents as a young boy is an eccentric obsessed with freedom and the sea Barker skillfully intertwines humor with despair to stimulate any reader's interest she taps into the psyches of her characters to create an authentic original and highly enjoyable read The Three Button Trick and Other Stories is a resonant audacious volume from a writer of immense talent and originality
