Speaking Of Films Paperback:

Daniel Blum's Screen World 1967 (Screen World) (Hardcover) John Willis,1967 Learn Russian through Contemporary Short Film Natallia Kabiak,2024-09-16 Learn Russian through Contemporary Short Film is a book with 12 modules based on modern Russian and Kazakh short films released between 2014 2022 The films immerse students in various aspects of culture and daily life This greatly assists the development of advanced level Russian proficiency in listening speaking reading and writing The inquiry based approach provides active stimuli for productive discussion The book is aimed at the High Intermediate to Advanced levels B1 C1 in the CEFR Each book chapter includes a series of activities offering engaging frameworks in which students can advance all four language skills By utilizing short films as teaching materials instructors can deliver engaging learning modules within limited timeframes The book s modular approach to structure offers flexibility for the instructors who can choose films and exercises that best suit their particular pedagogical goals The book includes keys to exercises making it suitable for self study The book is aimed at university students learning Russian as a foreign language at the High Intermediate level or above Russian students at vocational centers high school students sitting Russian as a second language exam or self directed Russian learners who wish to enrich both their command of the language itself and their insight into Russian daily life and contemporary cinema Navajo Talking Picture Randolph Lewis,2012-07-01 Navajo Talking Picture released in 1985 is one of the earliest and most controversial works of Native cinema It is a documentary by Los Angeles filmmaker Arlene Bowman who travels to the Navajo reservation to record the traditional ways of her grandmother in order to understand her own cultural heritage For reasons that have often confused viewers the filmmaker persists despite her traditional grandmother s forceful objections to the apparent invasion of her privacy What emerges is a strange and thought provoking work that abruptly calls into question the issue of insider versus outsider and other assumptions that have obscured the complexities of Native art Randolph Lewis offers an insightful introduction and analysis of Navajo Talking Picture in which he shows that it is not simply the first Navajo produced film but also a path breaking work in the history of indigenous media in the United States Placing the film in a number of revealing contexts including the long history of Navajo people working in Hollywood the ethics of documentary filmmaking and the often problematic reception of Native art Lewis explores the tensions and mysteries hidden in this unsettling but fascinating film Book World ,1968 Books and Bookmen ,1973 Paperback Talk Ray Walters,1985 This book draws on Ray Walters column Paperback Talk which ran in the New York Times Book Review from 1939 to 1984 It provides an invaluable account of how the trade is carried on by writers agents editors sales and promotion people wholesalers distributors and booksellers and readers The Economist ,1991 The Publishers Weekly ,1972 Forties Film Talk Doug McClelland,1992 Hollywood s last golden decade in one large magnificently illustrated compendium Part I includes never before published interviews with June Allyson Lew Ayres Ralph Bellamy Rhonda Fleming Virginia Mayo James Stewart and

62 others Part II provides short bursts of opinion from many principals regarding their movies in the 1940s Joan Crawford Bette Davis Spencer Tracy Cary Grant et al Speaking of Films Satyajit Ray,2005-07-25 India s greatest film maker on the art and craft of films Exactly fifty years ago in 1955 the release of Pather Panchali heralded the arrival of a master in the world of cinema Over the next forty years Satyajit Ray came to be regarded as one of the world s finest film makers ever Today more than a decade after his death he continues to be India s most respected name in international film circles Apart from his achievements as a director Ray was also a prolific writer of novels short stories and essays on cinema Speaking of Films brings together some of Ray s most memorable writings on film and film making With the masterly precision and clarity that characterize his films Ray discusses a wide array of subjects the structure and language of cinema with special reference to his adaptations of Tagore and Bibhuti Bhushan Bandopadhyay the appropriate use of background music and dialogue in films the relationship between a film maker and a film critic and important developments in cinema like the advent of sound and colour He also writes about his own experiences the challenges of working with rank amateurs and the innovations called for when making a film in the face of technological financial and logistical constraints In the process Ray provides fascinating behind the scenes glimpses of the people who worked with him the intricacies of getting Chhabi Biswas who had no ear for music to play a patron of classical music in Jalsaghar the incredible memory of the seventy five year old Chunibala Devi Indir Thakrun of Pather Panchali and her remarkable attention to details This first ever translation of Bishay Chalachitra a seminal collection of essays on cinema Speaking of Films retains the lucidity and simplicity that is a hallmark of Ray s writing and gives an invaluable insight into the mind of a genius The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English language Focus on Film ,1970 Talking Films Andrew Britton,1991 Journal of Education ,1920 Speaking the Language of Desire Raymond Carney,1989-03-31 Although Carl Dreyer is universally acknowledged to be one of the supreme masters of world cinema it is one of the oddities of film history that beyond The Passion of Joan of Arc his works have seldom had the general recognition that they undeniably deserve This book is an attempt to bring his films to the awareness of contemporary filmgoers everywhere The author argues that the key to an understanding of Dreyer s work is to be found in an appreciation of his distinctive style Close Up: Cinema And Modernism James Donald,Anne Friedberg,Laura Marcus,1998-01-01 Between 1927 and 1933 the journal Close Up championed a European avant garde in film making This volume republishes articles from the journal with an introduction and a commentary on the lives of and complex relationships between its writers and editors The Reception of Jane Austen in Europe Anthony Mandal,Brian Southam,2007-10-13 This volume of international research provides a wide ranging account of Jane Austen s reception across the length and breadth of Europe from Russia and Finland in the North to Italy and Spain in the South In historical terms the survey ranges from the near contemporary since Austen s novels were available in French very soon after their original publication to modern times in those countries which for various reasons linguistic historical or ideological have taken up the novels only in recent years For many Austen s novels are valued for their romantic content as love stories but increasingly they are being perceived as sophisticated ironic narratives In this the quality of translation has been a significant factor and the many film and television adaptations have played an important part in establishing Austen s reputation amongst the public at large It will be seen from this that across Europe Austen s reception history is far from uniform and has been shaped by a complex of extra literary forces
