Bookbuyers' Reference Book ,1993      Who's who in Australia ,2007      The Australian Journal of Dentistry ,1915      Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2002      Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate Volume 1 Ann Millar,1996-10-08 The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate covers the period 1901 1929 the period in which the Parliament operated from Melbourne This first volume provides short articles on Australia s Senators during the first thirty years of the Federal Parliament These entries place particular emphasis on the events of a Senator s parliamentary experience contributions to debates committee work parliamentary positions as well as ministerial appointments It provides also a window on the colonial and post colonial societies in which these ninety nine Senators and their three Clerks lived and worked It explains how miners merchants constitutionalists soldiers printers trade unionists adventurers and pastoralists became Senators and how in an essentially egalitarian society they melded together as Australia's first federal parliamentarians. It tells of their work as legislators during a period when Australia was making a unique contribution to democracy itself and reveals the excitement felt by conservatives and non-conservatives alike as they shaped the beginnings of an Australian nation. The contribution of these Senators to Australian public life was immense. The Federationists Richard Baker, John Downer, Thomas Playford, Richard O'Connor, James Walker, Henry Dobson, William Trenwith, Simon Fraser, Josiah Symon, and William Zeal retain some elements of notoriety. Others such as the South Australian farmer William Russell or Charles Montague Graham, a tailor on the Western Australian goldfields, were soon forgotten even in their own time. The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate reveals to a new generation the influence and the significance of men who came from all sides of politics and the social spectrum and were able parliamentarians and true representatives of the democratic process. This readable and authoritative work of reference will provide readers with a biographical account of all Australian senators and a history of the Senate since 1901. It makes a scholarly contribution to historical and parliamentary knowledge and fills many gaps in our knowledge of less well-known senators whose careers have not been fully documented before.

Sustainable Farm Forestry in the Tropics Stephen Robert Harrison, J. L. Herbohn, 2001-01-01. For readers interested in tropical forestry in a developed nation, the book is a detailed and excellent source of information.

Matthew Pelkki, Natural Resources Journal. There has been an increased awareness of the need to establish and maintain small scale forestry in tropical countries. This is due to concerns over continued deforestation, as well as the long term environmental and economic resources these plantations can contribute if managed successfully. This book examines the constraints that limit the development of small scale forestry in tropical environments and how they can be overcome.

Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11. Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY), a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together. The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices. This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries (1998), The World through Children's Books (2002), Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books (2006), and Bridges to Understanding: Envisioning the World through Children's Books (2011) and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles. Centered around the theme of the importance of stories, the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0–18 years. Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski, author Beverley Naidoo, and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature. This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010–2014 and includes English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States. These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries. The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country. All of the more than 800 entries are recommended, and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries. Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations. The entries are indexed by author, translator, illustrator, title, and subject. Back matter also includes international book awards, important organizations, and research collections, and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries.
