Garber,2021-06-28 2022 Association for Recorded Sound Collections Awards for Excellence Certificate of Merit in the category of Best Historical Research in Recorded Rock and Popular Music Ten songs from Bill Bailey Won t You Please Come Home 1902 to You Made Me Love You 1913 ignited the development of the classic pop ballad In this exploration of how the style of the Great American Songbook evolved Michael G Garber unveils the complicated often hidden origins of these enduring pioneering works He riffs on colorful stories that amplify the rising of an American folk art composed by innovators both famous and obscure Songwriters and also the publishers arrangers and performers achieved together a collective genius that moved hearts worldwide to song These classic ballads originated all over the nation Louisiana Colorado Illinois Michigan and then the Tin Pan Alley industry centered in New York made the tunes unforgettable sensations From ragtime to bop cabaret to radio new styles of music and modes for its dissemination invented and reinvented the intimate personal American love ballad creating something both swinging and tender Rendered by Frank Sinatra Ella Fitzgerald and a host of others recordings and movies carried these songs across the globe Using previously underexamined sources Garber demonstrates how these songs shaped the music industry and the lives of ordinary Americans Besides covering famous composers like Irving Berlin this history also introduces such little known figures as Maybelle Watson who had to sue to get credit and royalties for creating the central content of the lyric for My Melancholy Baby African American Frank Williams contributed to the seminal Some of These Days but was forgotten for decades The ten ballads explored here permanently transformed American popular song

Torch song trilogy ,1986 Torch Song Trilogy Harvey Fierstein,2018-09-25 A new edition of the classic drama portraying gay life in New York in the 1970s and 80s winner of the Tony Award for Best Play now back on Broadway in a revival hailed by The New York Times as irresistibly compelling What begins as a chance encounter in a New York nightclub leads drag performer Arnold Beckoff on a hilarious yet touching pursuit of love happiness and a life he can be proud of From a failed affair with a reluctant lover to a committed relationship with the promise of a stable family Arnold s struggle for acceptance meets its greatest resistance when he faces off against the person whose approval is most important to him his mother This edition contains for the first time ever both the original scripts for the three one act plays The International Stud Fugue in a Nursery and Widows and Children First as they were performed in the 1970s as well as the revised script for the 2017 revival that condensed all three into Torch Song It also includes a never before published introduction by Harvey Fierstein as well as photographs from both the original production and the revival starring Michael Urie and Mercedes Ruehl and directed by Mois s Kaufman Praise for Torch Song Trilogy Harvey Fierstein has created characters so vivid and real that they linger in the mind talking the night away long after the lights have been turned out and everyone has left Time Gorgeously funny a devastatingly comic play with just the right resonances New York Post Sassy sweet and moving People

Torch Song Tango Choir Julie Sophia Paegle,2010 These fine poems are connected by and evoke the music of lost homelands Paegle the daughter of immigrants from Argentina and Latvia takes us through the tumult of displacement and migration with a strong sense for the folk songs and tango music of her youth Against this musical backdrop she invests the bandone n an accordion like instrument brought to Argentina in the late nineteenth century with a special significance Her poetic account of the instrument yields this striking tribute which testifies to the passion of the collection when mission music spilled five octaves went new world wild The poems in the first section torch songs hover near a heartbreaking lyricism as they reckon with political histories landscapes and loss As she writes in this section there is truly nothing in this life like being blind in Granada The sonnet crown that comprises the next section tango liso plots a history of cultural inheritance and renewal weaving back and forth in time and spanning Argentina Spain and the United States Here the reader encounters Eva Per n alongside Katharine of Aragon and Billie Holiday The final section choir commemorates sites of pilgrimage in Latvia West Germany and Spain among other places In this extended contemplation of cathedral spaces Paegle interrogates the boundary between the sacred and the secular silence and song What emerges from this diverse collection is a sensual and allusive space where music and memory coincide
