Story Chest:

Assessing Children's Personal And Social Development MARTIN BUCK, Helena Burke, Sally Inman, 2005-07-28 Social and personal development of pupils is an area of growing interest. However, while much has been done in relation to provision for development, there is little available on how teachers might assess the development of pupils, be it spiritual, moral, social or cultural. The contributors also examine how we might accredit such development. With provision for development on the national agenda, this title looks at the repercussions and examines the difficult issues raised by assessment and accreditation and the problems with which teachers will inevitably be faced.

Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2016-07-15 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books? Which books are the best ones to use in primary teaching? How do you make the most of children's literature in teaching across the curriculum? Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children's literature. This is your guide to the range and scope of children's literature for the primary classroom. Through the exploration of different genres, it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature. Case studies that model good practice are included, with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum. Throughout, book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways. What's new to this edition: updated in line with the new Primary National Curriculum, includes new content on supporting children for whom English is an Additional Language, an extensive list of book recommendations for primary teaching, how to get more out of classic texts, introduces new texts and new children's
