Stranger To The World:

The gospel pulpit. Republ Joseph Charles Philpot, 1899      Heterogeneity Tobias Werler, 2012 It is true that modern teaching is faced with heterogeneous students Ironically this is not a recent development students have always been different Consequently there is a broad discourse on heterogeneity in education On the normative level of meta narratives about modern democracy one will find the idea that more and more people have to be included in the modern welfare state Nevertheless before talking about inclusion one has to deal with the mechanisms of exclusion if one is interested in the phenomenon of heterogeneity At the heart of it one will find the debate on the meaning of differences between students from an age group and their implications for school based learning Even more basically Didaktik has to give a response on the dilemma arising of balancing individual and collective modes of teaching However Didaktik theory speaks in the singular and in the light of normality It normally speaks of generalized homogenized students axis constructions and vertexes in the singular denying their heterogeneity How can the teacher's relation to this simultaneous heterogeneity be carried out in a justified way The central idea of the book is to explore whether this professional Didaktik challenge can be studied through the concept of the others strangeness This volume analyzes the constructions of heterogeneity in pedagogy based on the leitmotif of the stranger In doing so the stranger is seen as a didactic key The book shows that there is a necessity to understand the filter of strangeness otherness Beyond that it elaborates criteria for establishing the filter and didactically relevant mechanisms of this filter      Two Minute Stories Carl Safford Patton, 1930      The International Jew, the World's Foremost Problem , 1920      Faith in the Blessed God: Its Nature, Results, and Reward.
