Sinclair, 1982 Reference book compiling data relating to economic conditions and economic development trends of selected developing countries including least developed countries the oil producing OPEC and newly industrializing countries outlines current development planning for each country and includes a statistical appendix of economic indicators trade balances industrial production and balance of payments external debt Graphs and statistical tables

Third World Economic Handbook Stuart Sinclair, 1982 Rethinking Development Geographies Marcus Power, 2004-08-02 Development as a concept is notoriously imprecise vague and presumptuous Struggles over the meaning of this fiercely contested term have had profound implications on the destinies of people and places across the globe Rethinking Development Geographies offers a stimulating and critical introduction to the study of geography and development In doing so it sets out to explore the spatiality of development thinking and practices The book highlights the geopolitical nature of development and its origins in Empire and the Cold War It also reflects critically on the historical engagement of geographers with the Tropics the Third World and the South The dominant economic and political philosophies that shape the policies and perspectives of major institutions are discussed The interconnections between globalization and development are highlighted through an examination of local national and transnational resistance to various forms of development The text provides an accessible introduction to the complex and confusing world of contemporary global development Informative diagrams cartoons and case studies are used throughout While exploring global geographies of economic and political change Rethinking Development Geographies is also grounded in a concern with people and places the view from below the views of women and the view from the South

The Political Research Experience Marcus E. Ethridge, 2015-02-12 Organized to complement an introductory course in political science research methods this work aims to help students understand research as it is actually practiced Each chapter opens with an explanation of basic concepts and methods of political research

Anti-Americanism in the Third World Alvin Z. Rubinstein, Donald Eugene Smith, 1985 These essays originally presented at a conference held at the University of Pennsylvania in March 1984 show that particular U S policies have played an important role in engendering resentment of the United States in the so called Third World The first chapter presents an overview of the problem and proposes the structure of an approach to it including a typology of anti Americanism This is followed by essays which are country specific or regional in scope Mexico Latin America the Arab World Turkey South Asia Malaysia Africa in which the contributors flesh out some of the cultural ideological and historical factors which have influenced the particular expressions of anti Americanism in various parts of the third world Finally three contributors analyze the phenomenon in functional areas the multinational corporations the United Nations and in terms of implications for the United States

Third World Resources , 1994 Communication, Development, and the Third World Robert L. Stevenson, 1988 The first book to address two of the foremost issues in international communication the UNESCO debate over the New World of Information Order NWIO which attempted to reach a global consensus on the purpose of journalism and secondly the place of mass media and telecommunication in the development of third world countries It traces the growth of these issues from their beginnings in the sixties through the UNESCO declaration on mass media in 1978 into the present decade Key features of this text are the examination of the role communication plays in countries with differing systems of government and an explanation of the issues that brought UNESCO into the limelight in the eighties and its importance to the future Originally published in 1988 by Longman

Journal of Third World Studies , 1989 Consists of abstracts of selected papers from various conferences dealing with the third world and its problems
