

A silhouette of a soldier in profile, facing right, against a bright sunset sky. The soldier is wearing a helmet and has a rifle slung over his shoulder. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong backlight effect. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds.

Just a Soldier

I am just a soldier
Not a symbol of a cause
I don't want to be a reference
For policies or laws

I am here for service
To my country and my team
I can worship God as I chose
And live the American dream

Many choose to paint us
With a single hateful brush
They can't see the individual
When looking at who to trust

It really is quite easy
To see what side a man's a part
Just look at their uniform
And you'll know what's in their heart

Sellars set in the time before, during, and after his service in the U.S. Armed Forces. The collection encompasses over fourteen years of writing poetry. His poetry centers on the topics of love, life's struggle, family, the emotional effects of war, and the human need to reconnect and pursue God. The author writes from a patriotic heart that combines deep devotion, a love for the nation, and spiritual insight with the firsthand experiences of combat operations in Afghanistan and the emotional aftereffects of war on a soldier's psyche. Lessons and expressions from the heart vividly illustrate the possibility of finding one's pathway to hope through marital hills and valleys by communicating what is often difficult to say. A must-read for people who are struggling in their marriages with the difficulties of a soldier returning home. It will help them to reconnect and reignite the flame of marriage, the living symbol of mankind's relationship with God. This deeply personal collection exposes the devotions of a person's soul and the journey to find his way back into the heart of his beloved while also reconnecting to God and chasing one's own destiny Gray Soldiers Dave Smith, 1983 Heroes John Jeffcock, 2011 In 2010 with the full support of the MOD John Jeffcock, poet and a former soldier in the Coldstream Guards, invited contributions for a book of modern war poems. He was overwhelmed by the response; contributions came from serving soldiers, veterans, and their families: wives, sisters, daughters, one just 11 years old. The writers have one thing in common: these are people whose lives have been changed by war, and the poems speak to readers with direct emotional appeal. While over half of the contributions relate to Afghanistan, there are also poems inspired by the Second World War, the Falklands, and Northern Ireland. This is also the first time that poems have been gathered from all ranks and all organizations, from the Parachute Regiment to the Special Air Service, from the Gordon Highlanders to the Royal Marines. As the poetry of Brooke Owen and Sassoon spoke to those who endured the First World War, here are poems that speak of war in our time: the theatres of war might change, but the emotional resonance remains the same A Soldier's Time Robert L. Barth, 1987
