Sorting Metaphors

Marta Ant3n,Elizabeth M. Goering

Sorting Metaphors:

Metaphors of Money Laundering Stephen Gerome, 2025 Financial crime is a significant factor in most transnational crime and is wide reaching Many critical stakeholders use specific metaphors in their communications about transnational security threats relating to financial crime Metaphors are often idiomatic figures of speech that do not transfer quickly from one language to another because they originate from cultural concepts Within the public safety regulatory and compliance community key stakeholders

Understanding Patients' Voices Marta Antón, Elizabeth M. Goering, 2015-04-15 This volume illustrates the process of conducting interdisciplinary multi cultural research into the relationship between patient language use and chronic disease management The ten chapters in this book provide a model for interdisciplinary research in health discourse from start to finish Part I describes in detail the conceptualization and design of a multi year research project exploring language use among people living with diabetes Part II offers a sampler of a variety of qualitative quantitative and contrastive methodologies that have considerable potential in the study of health discourse Part III brings the research process full circle by discussing issues related to adapting research protocols to diverse cultural contexts translating results into practice and working in interdisciplinary teams

Contemporary Ergonomics 2003 Paul T. McCabe, 2002-06-01 The broad and developing scope of ergonomics the application of scientific knowledge to improve people s interaction with products systems and environments has been illustrated over the past 15 years by the books which make up the Contemporary Ergonomics series Presenting the proceedings of the Ergonomics Society s annual conference the series embraces the wide range of topics covered by ergonomics Individual papers provide insight into current practice present new research findings and form an invaluable reference source The volumes provide a fast track for the publication of suitable papers from international contributors These are chosen on the basis of abstracts submitted to a selection panel in the autumn prior to the Ergonomics Society s annual conference held in the spring

On Metaphoring

Wu,2022-05-20 On Metaphoring engages in a metaphor way to communicate and inter learn among cultures Bundle A describes how metaphor bundles things similar into a group called a notion a category etc How does metaphor bundle things It familiarizes strange things with things that are familiar to enrich old familiar things with new things newly made familiar Such metaphoric bundling creates a new family of knowledge In this order Bundle B characterizes metaphor as the origin of thinking fit as a highway of intercultural communication where there is no shared way of thinking for each culture is a specific way of thinking Bundle C shows how effective metaphor is in interculturality handling various problems of life and thinking How metaphor works to interculture exhibits in fact what metaphor is Such is how cultures understand one another a cultural hermetic

Metaphors Shaping Culture and Theory Herbert Grabes,2009

Life Metaphors Catherine Sullivan Norton,1989 How do people survive each day What keeps them going Is there a guiding sense of purpose How do they use the power of language to cope with ordinary life Inspired by the works of Studs Terkel and others Catherine Sullivan Norton conducted a series of interviews with persons who represent a sample of the population effectively coping with life Over a period of seven months she interviewed forty six people in a small Midwest town The twenty five men and twenty one women whose ages range from eighteen to seventy four represent many segments of society Drawing from more than a thousand pages of dialogue Norton has made their words the key feature of her work At the heart of this book are the real life working metaphors people use to give meaning to their lives Each individual s personal metaphor has the power to articulate what life is like for him or her A trained communicator Norton began her research with the idea that people use metaphor in their daily lives to help them cope She soon discovered that people confront life and resolve problems by using powerful metaphors and supportive stories to sustain them When the interviews were completed Norton was surprised to discover how hard people s lives are how well they cope and what clear vision they have In chapter one Norton specifically asks How does language help us cope It examines the relationship between metaphor and coping introducing the concept of a life metaphor Chapter two develops the idea of a life orientation showing how it fits into this study The next four chapters describe the life orientations as reflected in the chapter titles The Antagonist The Enthusiast The Fatalist and The Spectator In the final chapter Norton offers conclusions drawn from the interviews In an appendix she explains her methods

The Anti-revolutionary Rhetoric of Thomas Chandler, Myles Cooper, Charles Inglis, and Samuel Seabury Randall Lee Ferguson,1998

Metaphoric Analysis of the Debate on Physician Assisted Suicide Elizabeth S. Spragins,1999 This volume uses metaphoric analysis to explore the rhetorical aspects of the debate as represented in the published works of three physicians with opposing views Dr C Everett Koop Dr Jack Kevorkian and Dr Timothy Quill After examining the texts the author invents a hybrid metaphorical concept which can serve as a rhetorical bridge for participants in the debate Once this metaphorical means of communication is in place the necessary exploration of ethical systems can occur
