Personal Note

Hi Thomas,

I want to take a brief moment to send an Office Personal Note your way. These notes are all about creating a sense of connection amidst the hustle and bustle of our professional world. They open up a line of informal and friendly conversation, even in our highly professional milieu. And that's exactly what I'd like to achieve here.

Just want to extend my appreciation for the work you've been doing. I have noticed your tireless efforts and wanted to say that your dedication doesn't go unnoticed. It's colleagues like you who keep our brand's unique identity vibrant, dynamic, and truly exemplary.

This note might be brief, much shorter than our usual, formal lines of professional communication - but I hope every word resonates with the sincerity behind them. You are vibrant and integral part of our team.

Keep up your great work.

Regards,
H. Larson

Heetland, 2020-07-21 A problem facing many churches today is the lack of strong leadership in the area of stewardship particularly the stewardship of financial resources Church leaders clergy and laity have had little or no training in this area and they feel uncomfortable and embarrassed in encouraging financial support for the church s ministries Failure to provide decisive leadership in this area has had negative consequences for the church including a decreasing percentage of charitable dollars directed toward churches and a growing lack of understanding among church members of the relationship between giving and spiritual growth Creating Generous Congregations is written to assist church leaders in gaining necessary expertise in the stewardship of financial resources so that persons will be invited to grow spiritually and the various ministries of the church will flourish
