A "whistleblower" discloses information he or she reasonably believes evidences:

- A violation of any law, rule or regulation
  - Gross mismanagement
  - A gross waste of funds
  - An abuse of authority
  - A substantial and specific danger to public health or safety
  - Censorship related to scientific research if censorship meets one of the above-listed categories

The Office of Special Counsel (OSC) provides a secure channel through which current and former federal employees and applicants for federal employment may make confidential disclosures. OSC evaluates the disclosures to determine whether there is a substantial likelihood that one of the categories listed above has been disclosed. If such a determination is made, OSC has the authority to require the head of the agency to investigate the matter.
