

WHITHER BOUND?

By
Franklin D. Roosevelt

When the time comes when the people of a great nation are asked to give their support to a new government, it is the duty of the people to give their support to the government which they believe to be the best and most just. It is the duty of the people to give their support to the government which they believe to be the best and most just. It is the duty of the people to give their support to the government which they believe to be the best and most just.
