White Bird:

White Bird Blaine Wright, 2019-11-22 White Bird is a work of historical fiction set to the background of West Central Idaho during the early stages of US military escalation into the Vietnam conflict. The birth of Daniel Knight on the storm-ravaged slopes of White Bird Pass during the winter of 1950 presage the reawakening of the Great Animal Spirits of ancient Nez Perce lore. Born to a native heritage from a woman of the people who died in childbirth and an Anglo American bloodline from a father who abandoned him at birth, Daniel comes of age in 1963 unaware of his ties to destiny. In an event filled one year span of time he must forge lasting bonds of friendship, face unforeseen enemies, and learn the true meaning of courage, honor, and loyalty to love. Tied to destiny's path, Daniel will grow from self-imposed solitude into maturity as a leader of men and a warrior in the greatest traditions of his ancient heritage.

Childhood passes and the more she repeats her vow, the more life intervenes.

Black Mountain Lesli Birkhead, 2020-01-15 Like most others, the author has experienced adversity and loss, whether personally or by witnessing others' experiences. The author is very sensitive and significantly empathizes with others and animals in different situations. Through the writing of poetry, the author has experienced catharsis in many ways. Tears were genuinely shed with the writing of nearly every poem. The author includes a chapter based on a fictional character known as The Traveler. This diversion from other serious poetry allowed the author to delve into writing fantasy and takes the reader on a different type of journey. No matter the reader's pain or adversity, at least one of the author's poems is sure to resonate and hopefully encourage the reader to seek help or at least realize they are not alone. An old saying is certainly true: We are more alike than we are different. While the writings discuss life matters such as suicide, hopelessness, adversity, and loss, there are also rays of hope, love, inspiration, and peace. For those experiencing suicidal thoughts, please contact the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 or text CONNECT to 741741. YOU ARE NEVER ALONE
