Frances D. Monahan

Stress Health 2nd:

Stress and Health William R. Lovallo, 2005 Stress and Health Biological and Psychological Interactions Second Edition examines the biological links between our emotions and changes in our health Author William R Lovallo provides an introduction to the concept of psychological stress its physiological manifestations and its effects on health and disease The book concentrates on the psychophysiological relationship between cognitions emotions brain functions and the peripheral mechanisms by which the body is regulated Stress and Health is the only book on the biology of psychological stress for students and researchers in the behavioral sciences

Stress: Concepts, Cognition, Emotion, and Behavior George Fink, 2016-03-10 Stress Concepts Cognition Emotion and Behavior Handbook in Stress Series Volume 1 examines stress and its management in the workplace and is targeted at scientific and clinical researchers in biomedicine psychology and some aspects of the social sciences The audience is appropriate faculty and graduate and undergraduate students interested in stress and its consequences The format allows access to specific self contained stress subsections without the need to purchase the whole nine volume Stress handbook series This makes the publication much more affordable than the previously published four volume Encyclopedia of Stress Elsevier 2007 in which stress subsections were arranged alphabetically and therefore required purchase of the whole work This feature will be of special significance for individual scientists and clinicians as well as laboratories In this first volume of the series the primary focus will be on general stress concepts as well as the areas of cognition emotion and behavior Offers chapters with impressive scope covering topics including the interactions between stress cognition emotion and behaviour Features articles carefully selected by eminent stress researchers and prepared by contributors representing outstanding scholarship in the field Includes rich illustrations with explanatory figures and tables Includes boxed call out sections that serve to explain key concepts and methods Allows access to specific self contained stress subsections without the need to purchase the whole nine volume Stress handbook series

COVID-19 and Women's Health, 2nd edition Stephen Kennedy, Laura A. Magee, Stacey A. Missmer, Jayashri Kulkarni, Vassiliki Benetou, Marianne Vidler, Chelsea Morroni, 2023-02-07 As a result of the Coronavirus disease COVID 19 pandemic the world is facing one of the greatest challenges we have experienced in over a century The economic consequences for society at large are potentially catastrophic The health and social care sectors have reacted by providing emergency care on an unprecedented scale while the scientific community has focused on developing new treatments and a vaccine to prevent future waves of the pandemic Evidence is emerging to suggest that certain conditions such as obesity and hypertension predispose some individuals to a worse outcome if they become infected and that women may be less likely to die from COVID 19 than men It is also currently believed that pregnant women are at no greater risk than the general population There is an urgent need to determine whether these early observations are correct Furthermore we need to be sure that pregnancy outcomes are not affected by COVID 19 and that SARS CoV 2 is not transmitted to the fetus during pregnancy or labour nor to the infant through breast milk There are so many questions that need to be answered to optimise care avoid harm reduce anxiety amongst women and their families and inform health professionals and policymakers We also need to understand the unintended consequences of the global lockdown on women s health in general For example have rates of domestic violence risen to what extent has women s mental health been affected and have women successfully adapted or devised new coping mechanisms have women been denied access to gynaecological treatments during the lockdown including safe abortion and if so with what impact on their health and wellbeing has the female work force suffered disproportionately in economic terms have national and international recommendations and policies been sufficiently gender neutral have breastfeeding rates been adversely affected will COVID 19 make attainment of the UN SDGs more difficult etc In keeping with the Scope Mission of Frontiers in Global Women s Health this Research Topic aims to provide a multi disciplinary platform to answer important COVID 19 related questions that specifically impact upon women s health and wellbeing particular in resource poor settings The Topic Editors welcome a broad range of contributions including Original Research Reviews Commentaries Study Protocols and Systematic Reviews We would like to acknowledge Dr Nathalie MacDermott and Dr Rhiannon George Carey who have acted as coordinators and have contributed to the preparation of the proposal for this Research Topic Given the exceptional nature of the COVID 19 situation Frontiers is waiving all article publishing charges for COVID 19 related research in this Research Topic Please note that manuscripts must be submitted by the deadline of December 31st
