Alur Society Aidan Southall, 2004 Alur Society became a classic for a number of reasons Being much more than a descriptive account of an African society it was the first intensive ethnography to adopt the ideas of Max Weber It pioneered the idea that religion and ritual could be the basis of political action It also showed how state systems could evolve not just on the basis of conquest but as a result of societies without kings inviting those with kings to govern them Author Aidan Southall's theory of the segmentary state was adopted by political anthropologists throughout the subject and also by political scientists being applied not just to Africa but also to India and other parts of the world The book was able to arrive at such long lasting and imaginative conclusions through the use of ethnographic material of a quality rarely surpassed It is moreover arguably the best book in social anthropology of a Nilotic speaking people Southall's own command of their language and his overall scholarly knowledge of Nilotes is also unsurpassed

Between God and the Sultan Knut S. Vikør, 2005 The contrast between religion and law has been continuous throughout Muslim history Islamic law has always existed in a tension between these two forces God who gave the law and the state the sultan representing society and implementing the law This tension and dynamic have created a very particular history for the law in how it was formulated and by whom in its theoretical basis and its actual rules and in how it was practiced in historical reality from the time of its formation until today That is the main theme of this book Knut S Vikør introduces the development and practice of Islamic law to a wide readership students lawyers and the growing number of those interested in Islamic civilization He summarizes the main concepts of Islamic jurisprudence discusses debates concerning the historicity of Islamic sources of dogma and the dating of early Islamic law describes the classic practice of the law in the formulation and elaboration of legal rules and practice in the courts and sets out various substantive legal rules on such vital matters as the family and economic activity
