Sunrise with Seamonsters Paul Theroux, 1986 Collection of decidedly opinionated articles essays and ruminations spanning two decades Page 4 of cover Sunrise with Seamonsters Outlet, Paul Theroux, 1987-11-25 Sunrise with Seamonsters Paul Theroux, 2005 In this wide ranging collection of his work this traveller of over twenty years tells of his Peace Corps work as a young man working unconsciously for the German CIA through many literary encounters and on to the explicit sexual urges of Mrs Robinson The Cambridge Introduction to Travel Writing Tim Youngs, 2013-05-27 Surveying various works of travel literature this text argues that travel writing redefines the myriad genres it often comprises Have You Ever Had a Hunch? Ellen Palestrant, 2005-08 Reclaim your creativity by exploring the educational sociological psychological and political influences on independent thinking Have You Ever Had a Hunch is a powerful tool for self growth and an invaluable gift for anyone wanting to explore their own creativity In a series of short to the point chapters author Ellen Palestrant strips away the layers of inhibition and repression that encumbers us all Windows on Japan Bruce Roscoe, 2007 Windows on Japan is a deeply insightful commentary that alternates chapters of physical travel with travel through perception about Japan and challenges the logic of much Western thought about the country that perplexes as much as it pleases The author walked a route that connects the ports of Niigata and Yokohama and from these windows on the world considers perceptions of people and place He also assesses the effect of Japan on writers from Jonathan Swift to Oscar Wilde Shirley MacLaine and Paul Theroux with surprising results The trading entity that wraps its tentacles around the globe converses in most languages and understands most customs is perceptive and urbane and none appears more capable or cosmopolitan Yet the individuals who inhabit these islands take refuge in their language as a private habitat resent intrusions and are captured by a cultural particularism that distances them from others The author discusses this paradox as well as environmental and linguistic issues and topics of history and literature Along the way he lifts a veil on the life of a snow country geisha discusses current events with a priest and a reporter and takes advice on becoming a Japanese Though he is understood it is only on return visits to places he has come to love that he wins acceptance Notes on music delightfully enrich the narrative Train Beyond the Mountains Rick Antonson, 2023-04-18 A captivating journey blending memoir history and biography that takes the reader on one of the world's most famous trains and tells of carving the dramatic route it follows while pondering other international railways through the eyes of travellers past and present Rick Antonson has ridden trains in more than thirty five countries but almost everything he thinks he knows about train travel changes when he boards the Rocky Mountaineer with his ten year old grandson Riley As they wind over trestles and through tunnels each mile of track uncovers stories of dynamite and discovery surveyors and schemers explorers and visionaries and the people who helped to build Canada against the odds of geography and politics Surrounded by a wild landscape that sparks imagination fellow passengers recount train travels in other countries get nostalgic for the era of steam locomotives and consider life's unfinished journeys Peppared with spirited dialogue heartrending vignettes and intriguing anecdotes Train Beyond the Mountains is a travelogue with urgency to make your travel dreams happen now As one passenger muses The mistake we make is that we think we have time

Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick,Zoë Kinsley,Kathryn Walchester,2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words the style more essayistic than encyclopaedic with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading

The Temporal Horizon Karin Linton, 1989 This dissertation studies the theme of time in Anne Tyler's fiction and centres specifically on how Jeremy Pauling in Celestial Navigation Justine Peck in Searching for Caleb Cody Tull in Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant and Macon Leary in The Accidental Tourist respond to the losses brought about by the passage of time The introduction establishes similarities between Tyler's emphasis on change the passage of time and reactions to change and Paul Fraisse's focus on temporally organized behaviour the three interrelated perspectives of the past the present and the future The temporal horizon is used in this dissertation as a key to interpreting the temporal awareness of Tyler's characters and their behaviour in adapting to change It is often memories of crises such as unexpected death or desertion which predominate the protagonist's temporal outlook at the expense of the present and the future protagonist's is to free themselves from the past and discover a greater significance in the present and the future With the exception of Jeremy Pauling they finally succeed in altering the hold of the past and as a consequence of this shift of vision a better balance between their three temporal perspectives is achieved dissertation indicates that the majority of her protagonists in the end reach a moment of buoyancy when at least temporarily in control of time they apparently trust in the possibility of altering their situations Because of this anticipation they also modify their behaviour and take steps to give their futures a new direction While it may be an open question where the passage of time may lead them the thesis indicates that in many of Anne Tyler's novels the endings seem suggestive of affirmative change

On The Plain Of Snakes Paul Theroux, 2019-10-08 The legendary travel writer drives the entire length of the US Mexico border then takes the back roads of Chiapas and Oaxaca to uncover the rich layered world behind the everyday headlines Paul Theroux has spent his life crisscrossing the globe in search of the histories and peoples that give life to the places they call home Now as immigration debates boil around the world Theroux has set out to explore a country key to understanding our current discourse Mexico Just south of the Arizona border in the desert region of Sonora he finds a place brimming with vitality yet visibly marked by both the US Border Patrol to the north and mounting discord from within With the same humanizing sensibility that he employed in Deep South Theroux stops to talk with residents visits Zapotec mill workers in the highlands and attends a Zapatista party meeting communing with people of all stripes who remain south of the border even as family members brave the journey north From the writer praised for his curiosity and affection for humanity in all its forms The New York Times Book Review On the Plain of Snakes is an exploration of a region in conflict
