Texts Ideas And The Classics:

Texts, Ideas, and the Classics S. J. Harrison, 2001 This collection of essays by leading scholars argues that in the contemporary context of the study and interpretation of classical literature at universities traditional classical scholarship and modern theoretical ideas need to work with each other in the common task of the interpretation of texts in order to ensure the survival and relevance of the study of classical literature in the twenty first century

Structures of Epic Poetry Christiane Reitz, Simone Finkmann, 2019-12-16 This compendium 4 vols studies the continuity flexibility and variation of structural elements in epic narratives It provides an overview of the structural patterns of epic poetry by means of a standardized stringent terminology Both diachronic developments and changes within individual epics are scrutinized in order to provide a comprehensive structural approach and a key to intra and intertextual characteristics of ancient epic poetry

Literary Construction of Identity in the Ancient World Hanna Liss, Manfred Oeming, 2010-06-30 Encountering an ancient text not only as a historical source but also as a literary artifact entails an important paradigm shift which in recent years has taken place in classical and Oriental philology Biblical scholars Egyptologists and classical philologists have been pioneers in supplementing traditional historical critical exegesis with more literary approaches This has led to a wealth of new insights While the methodological consequences of this shift have been discussed within each discipline until recently there has not been an attempt to discuss its validity and methodology on an interdisciplinary level In 2006 the Faculty of Bible and Biblical Interpretation at the Hochschule für Jüdische Studien Heidelberg and the Faculty of Theology at the University of Heidelberg invited scholars from the U S Canada the Netherlands Israel and Germany to examine these issues Under the title Literary Fiction and the Construction of Identity in Ancient Literatures Options and Limits of Modern Literary Approaches in the Exegesis of Ancient Texts experts in Egyptology classical philology ancient Near Eastern studies biblical studies Jewish studies literary studies and comparative religion came together to present current research and debate open questions At this conference each representative from a total of 23 different disciplines dealt with literary theory in regard to his or her area of research The present volume organizes 17 of the resulting essays along 5 thematic lines that show how similar issues are dealt with in different disciplines 1 Thinking of Ancient Texts as Literature 2 The Identity of Authors and Readers 3 Fiction and Fact 4 Rereading Biblical Poetry and 5 Modeling the Future by Reconstructing the Past discussion Explores the impact of Greek and Roman culture worldwide including crucial new areas in Arabic literature South African drama the history of photography and contemporary ethics The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Chinese Philosophy Methodologies Sor-hoon Tan,2016-08-25 The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Chinese Philosophy Methodologies presents a new understanding of the changing methods used to study Chinese philosophy By identifying the various different approaches and discussing the role and significance of philosophical methods in the Chinese tradition this collection identifies difficulties and exciting developments for scholars of Asian philosophy Divided into four parts the nature of Chinese philosophical thought is illuminated by discussing historical developments current concerns and methodological challenges Surveying recent methodological trends this research companion explores and evaluates the methodologies that have been applied to Chinese philosophy From these diverse angles an international team of experts reflect on the considerations that enter their methodological choices and indicate new research directions The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Chinese Philosophy Methodologies is an important contribution to the education of the next generation of Chinese philosophers Human Rights in Chinese Thought Stephen C. Angle,2002-06-24 What should we make of claims by members of other groups to have moralities different from our own Human Rights in Chinese Thought gives an extended answer to this question in the first study of its kind It integrates a full account of the development of Chinese rights discourse reaching back to important though neglected origins of that discourse in 17th and 18th century Confucianism with philosophical consideration of how various communities should respond to contemporary Chinese claims about the uniqueness of their human rights concepts The book elaborates a plausible kind of moral pluralism and demonstrates that Chinese ideas of human rights do indeed have distinctive characteristics but it nonetheless argues for the importance and promise of cross cultural moral engagement Hermathena ,2003 The Classical Review ,2005 The Journal of Hellenic Studies ,2003 Vols 1 8 1880 87 plates published separately and numbered I LXXXIII Proceedings Cambridge Philological Society,2005 Harvard Alumni Bulletin ,1911 The Design of Virgil's Bucolics John Van Sickle,1978 Among the many recent studies of the Bucolics none has dealt systematically with the evidence newly broached by modern scholarship that Virgil s book may be a single unified composition in which the ten eclogues rather than separate poems gathered and arranged are parts worked out expressly for their places and differentiated functions in the whole The present study emphasizing the need for considered method approaches the book s unity first in terms of theme It shows that Virgil deployed themes in three registers a bucolic a georgic and a civic heroic that develop and systematically vary through all the eclogues in the order of the book A thematic system thus emerges in the book as a whole It may share the traditional functions of rhetoric and music at the level of performance but it is shown also to articulate on reflective reading an ambitious design in poetics Through it Virgil reckons with the entire tradition of epos which he recasts from two modes into three Hesiodic Homeric bucolic Hesiodic Homeric He thus establishes the tripartite frame for his life s work with its ultimate emulation of Homer In the process through the successive eclogues he also gradually transforms the bucolic mode from Sicilian Theocritean to Arcadian This he conceives as a return to the source hence a new beginning that outdoes Theocritus
