Slow Places in Béla Tarr's Films Clara Orban,2021-09-08 Slow Places in Béla Tarr's Films explores Hungarian filmmaker Béla Tarr's approach to creating geographies of indifference through slow cinema techniques Through a close examination of Tarr's filmography Clara Orban observes that his interiors provide claustrophobic environments in which human relationships have difficult flourishing while his exteriors become landscapes through which characters wander endlessly Furthermore Orban argues Tarr's sparse use of animals provides contrast to the humans who inhabit these spaces as they too are indifferent to humans fates Orban utilizes close readings of Tarr's films including his earlier short films along with relevant poems a thorough filmography and an interview with Tarr about aspects of this book to aid in her analysis Ultimately this book offers an accessible but detailed look at the geographic locations and ecological implications of the entire compendium of Tarr's productions

Between Self and Society John Rodden,2016-01-15 Between Self and Society explores the psychosocial dramas that galvanize six major British novels written between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries The book challenges an influential misconception that has for too long hindered appreciation of the psychological novel John Rodden argues that there should be no simplifying antithesis between psychological inner conflicts within the mind or soul and institutional outer conflicts within family class community Instead it is the overarching dramatic yet often tortuous relations between self and society that demand our attention Rodden presents fresh interpretations of an eclectic group of prose fiction classics including Tobias Smollett's The Adventures of Roderick Random William Godwin's Caleb Williams Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier Wyndham Lewis's Tarr and D H Lawrence's Women in Love Far from being merely admirable experiments let alone daring though interesting failures these fictions are shown to possess aesthetic unity stylistic consistency and psychic force Between Self and Society thus impels our careful reconsideration of novels that represent major artistic achievements yet have been either unjustly neglected or appreciated in limiting ways that do injustice to their psychological aspects Rodden's vibrant discussion invites an upward reevaluation of these works and encourages the full recognition of their value and significance in British literary history

Vamparazzi Laura Resnick,2011-10-04 Everything you know about vampires is wrong as struggling actress Esther Diamond discovers after taking a job as a victim in The Vampyre an off Broadway cult hit in Manhattan Not only is she besieged by fang wearing vampire groupies fanatical anti vampire activists and the bloodsucking paparazzi but she also has to put up with broody lead actor Daemon Ravel who claims to be a real vampire But when one of Daemon's fan girls turns up dead and drained of all her blood Esther is determined to help She turns to her friend Max a 350 year old magician

Meanwhile Detective Connor Lopez Esther's ex almost boyfriend is convinced that Esther herself is the blood sucking killer's next target Vamparazzi is the exciting fourth installment of the acclaimed Esther Diamond series The Dog Book James Watson,1912 British Dogs, Their Points, Selection, and Show Preparation William D.
