Office of Military History,1953 The Defence of Sevastopol, 1941-1942 Clayton Donnell,2016-02-29 This vividly detailed WWII history chronicles one of the hardest fought battles of the Crimea Campaign In December 1941 while America was reeling from the attack on Pearl Harbor and the offensives of the German Army Groups North and Center were stalled in the brutal Russian winter the German Eleventh Army encircled the vast fortress of Sevastopol in the Crimea The Red Army faced massive air artillery and land attacks against their heavily defended positions in one of the most remarkable campaigns in the history of modern warfare The Siege of Sevastopol Drawing on his expert knowledge of the history of modern fortifications Donnell describes the design and development of the Red Army s formidable base at Sevastopol He then chronicles the sequence of attacks mounted by the Wehrmacht against the city s strongpoints The forts and bunkers had to be taken one by one in a bitter six month struggle with sever casualties on both sides Using documentary records and a range of personal accounts Clayton Donnell reconstructs the events and experience of the campaign in vivid detail Under the Southern Cross Thomas McKelvey Cleaver,2021-05-13 A vivid narrative history of the Solomons and New Guinea campaigns of World War II which represented key turning points in the U S Navy s campaign against the Japanese in the Pacific From August 7 1942 until February 24 1944 the US Navy fought the most difficult campaign in its history Between the landing of the 1st Marine Division on Guadalcanal and the final withdrawal of the Imperial Japanese Navy from its main South Pacific base at Rabaul the US Navy suffered such high personnel losses that for years it refused to publicly release total casualty figures The Solomons campaign saw the US Navy at its lowest point forced to make use of those ships that had survived the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and other units of the pre war navy that had been hastily transferred to the Pacific 140 days after the American victory at Midway USS Enterprise was the only pre war carrier left in the South Pacific and the US Navy would have been overwhelmed in the face of Japanese naval power had there been a third major fleet action At the same time another under resourced campaign had broken out on the island of New Guinea The Japanese attempt to reinforce their position there had led to the Battle of the Coral Sea in May and through to the end of the year American and Australian armed forces were only just able to prevent a Japanese conquest of New Guinea The end of 1942 saw the Japanese stopped in both the Solomons and New Guinea but it would take another 18 hard fought months before Japan was forced to retreat from the South Pacific Under the Southern Cross draws on extensive first hand accounts and new analysis to examine the Solomons and New Guinea campaigns which laid the groundwork for Allied victory in the Pacific War Annals of
