The Island Barbados:

A Voyage to the Islands Madera, Barbados, Nieves, S. Christophers and Jamaica Sir Hans Sloane, 1707 First edition of the work on which Sloane's reputation as a natural historian was founded In 1687 Sloane went to the West Indies as physician to the Governor of Jamaica the Duke of Albermarle and though his stay there only lasted 15 months he collected during that time no less than 8 000 specimens of new plants This work was the outcome of his scientific explorations Sloane was Secretary of the Royal Society from 1693 to 1712 and President from 1727 to 1741 His library and extensive collections formed the nucleus of the British Museum A copy of exceptional interest the volumes were a gift made by joint arrangement from Sloane and Admiral Sir Charles Wager to Peter Collinson 1694 1768 the eminent English botanist and friend of Benjamin Franklin Volume 1 has the holograph inscription November the 14th 1740 I give the Book of my friend Mr Peter Collinson Chas Wager Volume 2 has the holograph inscription Nov 13 1740 This is my gift to my very good and very much esteemed friend Mr Peter Collinson Hans Sloane It was through Collinson's exertions that the cultivation of flax hemp silk and wine was introduced into several of the North American colonies While yet a young man he Collinson secured the notice of some of the best naturalists of the age and especially of Sir Hans Sloane Sir Charles Wager sought his assistance and at Collinson's suggestion systematized his search for illustrative examples of natural products during his voyages A considerable portion of the collections thus made were eventually deposited in Sir Hans Sloane's Museum DNB

The Quaker Community on Barbados Larry Dale Gragg, 2009 Prior to the Quakers large scale migration to Pennsylvania Barbados had more Quakers than any other English colony But on this island of sugar plantations Quakers confronted material temptations and had to temper founder George Fox's admonitions regarding slavery with the demoralizing realities of daily life in a slave based economy one where even most Quakers owned slaves In The Quaker Community on Barbados Larry Gragg shows how the community dealt with these contradictions as it struggled to change the culture of the richest of England's seventeenth century colonies Gragg has conducted meticulous research on two continents to re create the Barbados Quaker community Drawing on wills censuses and levy books along with surviving letters sermons and journals he tells how the Quakers sought to implement their beliefs in peace simplicity and equality in a place ruled by a planter class that had built its wealth on the backs of slaves He reveals that Barbados Quakers were a critical part of a transatlantic network of Friends and explains how they established a counterculture on the island one that challenged the practices of the planter class and the class's dominance in island government church and economy In this compelling study Gragg focuses primarily on the seventeenth century when the Quakers were most numerous and active on Barbados He tells how Friends sought to convert slaves and improve their working and living conditions He describes how Quakers refused to fund the Anglican Church take oaths participate in the militia or pay taxes to maintain forts and how they condemned Anglican clergymen disrupted their services and wrote papers critical of the established church By the 1680s Quakers were maintaining five meetinghouses and several cemeteries paying for their own poor relief and keeping their own records of births deaths and marriages Gragg also tells of the severe challenges and penalties they faced for confronting and rejecting the dominant culture With their civil disobedience and stand on slavery Quakers on Barbados played an important role in the early British Empire but have been largely neglected by scholars Gragg's work makes their contribution clear as it opens a new window on the seventeenth and eighteenth century Atlantic world Barbados Island, Caribbean James

Baker,2020-11-02 Barbados Island Caribbean Tourism The most eastern of the Caribbean islands Barbados is a relatively flat island with sloping plains sporadic rolling hills and even areas of marshes and mangroves With 60 miles of coastline the island is an ideal place to enjoy the seaside The highest point on the island is Mount Hillaby which peaks 340 meters above sea level Historical traces can be found throughout Barbados from 18th century homes to the residual presence of colonial and Christian influences Social activities center around the western and southern coasts where tourists can enjoy waterfront pubs nightclubs and more To see more of the map widen your browser Attractions In the area encompassing Bridgetown and the surrounding southwest coast tourists will find engaging attractions like the Tyrol Cot House and Heritage Village This site provides excellent insight into Barbados history complete with the Chattel House Museum a slave hut replica an operational blacksmith's shop and more Likewise at the George Washington House guests can take a peak into the house where the famous Washington spent his time on the island On the west coast of the island known as the Platinum Coast guests will be enticed by crystal clear water that gently crashes onto pristine stretches of sand There are countless beaches to choose from in this area including Paynes Bay Sandy Lane Batts Rock and more Other recommended beaches include

Cattlewash Beach on the east coast Carlisle Bay located near Bridgetown and the southern coast destinations of Crane Beach and Accra Beach The interior of Barbados is equally attractive with stunning sites like the Flower Forest Located directly in the center of the map this former plantation features numerous paths that traverse extensive gardens which are home to flora from around the globe At the Farley Hill National Park in the northern interior of the island patrons will be enchanted by ruins of the former Farley The Cavaliers & Roundheads of Barbados, 1650-1652 Nicholas Darnell Davis,1883

Barbados - Bridgetown & the South Keith Whiting,2012-12-01 Surrounded by miles of magnificent white sand beaches protected by coral reefs and brushed by the constant breeze of the trade winds Barbados is a swimmer's paradise The west coast beaches are calm and lapped by the Caribbean The south coast has small to medium waves that are great for windsurfing and boogie boarding while the southeast coast has big waves and is only suitable for strong swimmers Because of its location tropical storms and hurricanes common to other Caribbean islands generally miss Barbados As a coral island Barbados is home to a vast array of caves and underground lakes which provide some of the purest drinking water in the world The island is also home to rainforests marshes and mangrove swamps along with pastures and sugarcane fields It has a diverse and interesting landscape making it a fascinating place to explore aBridgetown is the only city outside of North America that George Washington visited The house where he stayed has been renovated and is now known as the George Washington House Bridgetown is the main shopping center in Barbados and is home to a large and varied selection of shops You will need to take your passport with you in order to take advantage of the tax free shopping If you are planning a purchase of high end jewelry precious stones electronic or photographic equipment the shops in Barbados offer some great duty free deals some even sell at wholesale prices Christ Church is the southernmost parish bordered by St Michael to the west St George to the north and St Philip to the east Grantley Adams Airport is in this parish and it is one of the most developed parts of the island with numerous restaurants nightclubs hotels and bars The beaches are generally safe for swimming but can have strong currents and occasionally strong waves There are lots of water sports on the south coast including windsurfing kite surfing wake boarding snorkeling jet skiing and a host of others aa All of the detailed information you need is here about the hotels restaurants shopping sightseeing But we also lead you to new discoveries turning corners you haven't turned before helping you to interact with the world in new ways That's what makes our Adventure Guides unique Barbados is unique and fascinating a marriage of Africa and Britain in the Caribbean The easternmost of all the Caribbean islands Barbados is uniquely situated so as to avoid virtually all hurricanes Its 166 square miles of forests cliffs fishing villages wildlife nightlife and of course beaches are surrounded by miles of coral reef teeming with an incredible array of sea life and shipwrecks Some of the best sailing in the Caribbean is here with southeasterly trade winds to carry you across the water This is a land rich in history and culture with an abundance of wildlife beauty and nature There are only four guidebooks on the island and most are badly out of date With 500 000 tourists visiting per year Barbados is a major attraction with very little guidebook competition Details the best diving spots all types of accommodations dining tours local lore and festivals services Extensive background on the history government and economy of the island The author has been a regular visitor for over 20 years Filled with inside information on which festivals are worth your time where to find the best Bajan music classes that will teach you the local cooking and artistic styles Other guides are mostly out of date None takes the Adventure Guide perspective that we do immersing you in the local culture and in the active things to do on the island Today s traveler is eager to explore not just sit on a beach Adventure Guides aim to deliver content Moderately priced and truly user friendly they are packed with information that other series rarely cover Library Journal Bursting with relevant and exciting information Booklist Highly recommended Library Journal A History of Barbados, 1625-1685 Vincent Todd Harlow,1926 TRUE & EXACT HISTORY OF THE ISLAND OF BARBADOS. RICHARD.
