The Magic Pot Odeen Ishmael,2010-07-30 This book comprises a collection of popular folk stories from Guyana and other countries of the Caribbean region The starring character in all of them is Nansi whose exploits form part of the folklore of these countries Nansi the starring character in all the stories is also popularly known as Anansi But in Guyana and some other Caribbean countries Nansi the shortened form of this name is usually preferred Nansi who is a spiderbut who sometimes takes the qualities or form of a man or even half man and half spider is originally the chief trickster among the Ashanti and Akan peoples of West Africa When some of these peoples were forcibly brought to the Caribbean and the American continent as slaves from the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries they also brought with them the tales of the exploits of Nansi who was and still is variably regarded as a folk hero a cunning trickster and also sometimes as a fool The stories in this book are no different to the ones told in West Africa or other parts of the Caribbean and the south east United States even though the plots and the characters involved may vary slightly They certainly provide tangible evidence that much of the oral traditions of people of African origin in the Americas remain intact despite the historical trauma caused by centuries of slavery Nansi is always outwitting the forest creatures humans his own family the community in which he lives and sometimes even deities His character assumes various patterns In some cases he is regarded as wise but he can be greedy cunning gluttonous stupid and dishonest Despite these varying characteristics Nansi is generally admired for the manner in which he outwits others In Guyana and other countries of the English speaking Caribbean particularly in rural areas the exploits of Nansi are related by older people as a form of entertainment at wakes and other community gatherings The stories are now no longer exclusive to people of West African ancestry since people of all ethnic origins in the these countries regard Nansi as their folk hero as well Interestingly all stories told at these informal community gatherings are regarded as Nansi stories even though Nansi may not be a character in any of them The tales of Nansi are very imaginative and they are so embedded in the minds of people of Guyana and the Caribbean that sometimes any story that is far fetched and hard to believe is dismissed as a Nansi story

Three Great Books on Magic Franz Bardon,2020-12-06 This volume contains three books of Franz Bardon 1 Initiation into Hermeticism 2 The Practice of Magical Evocation 3 The True Key to the Quabalah In reality magic is a sacred science it is in the very true sense the sum of all knowledge because it teaches how to know and utilize the sovereign rules There is no difference between magic and mysticism or any other conception of the name Wherever authentic initiation is at stake one has to proceed on the same basis according to the same rules irrespective of the name given by this or that creed Considering the universal polarity rules of good and evil active and passive light and shadow each science can serve good as well as bad purposes Let us take the example of a knife an object that virtually ought to be used for cutting bread only which however can become a dangerous weapon in the hands of a murderer All depends on the character of the individual This principle goes just as well for all the spheres of the occult sciences In my book I have chosen the term of magician for all of my disciples it being a symbol of the
