Theorizing the Avant-Garde Richard John Murphy, 1999-04-22 In Modernism Expressionism and Theories of the Avant Garde Richard Murphy mobilises theories of the postmodern to challenge our understanding of the avant garde He assesses the importance of the avant garde for contemporary culture and for the debates among theorists of postmodernism such as Jameson Eagleton Lyotard and Habermas Murphy reconsiders the classic formulation of the avant garde in Lukacs and Bloch especially their discussion of aesthetic autonomy and investigates the relationship between art and politics via a discussion of Marcuse Adorno and Benjamin Combining close textual readings of a wide range of films as well as works of literature it draws on a rich array of critical theories such as those of Bakhtin Todorov MacCabe Belsey and Raymond Williams This interdisciplinary project will appeal to all those interested in modernist and avant garde movements of the early twentieth century and provides a critical rethinking of the present day controversy regarding postmodernity

Theorizing the Avant-garde Richard John Murphy, 1999 Combining close textual readings of a wide range of works of literature as well as films it draws on a rich array of critical theories such as those of Bakhtin Todorov

MacCabe Belsey and Raymond Williams This interdisciplinary project will appeal to all those interested in modernist and avant garde movements of the early twentieth century and provides a critical rethinking of the present day controversy regarding postmodernity Decadence and Modernism in European and Russian Literature and Culture Jonathan Stone,2019-12-12 Decadence and Modernism in European and Russian Literature and Culture Aesthetics and Anxiety in the 1890s rewrites the story of early modernist literature and culture by drawing out the tensions underlying its simultaneous engagement with Decadence and Symbolism the unsustainable combination of this world and the other With a broadly framed literary and cultural approach Jonathan Stone examines a shift in perspective that explodes the notion of reality and showcases the uneasy relationship between the tangible and intangible aspects of the surrounding world Modernism quenches a growing fascination with the ephemeral and that which cannot be seen while also doubling down on the significance of the material world and finding profound meaning in the physical and the corporeal Decadence and Symbolism complement the broader historical trajectory of the fin de siècle by affirming the novelty of a modernist mindset and offering an alternative to the empirical and positivistic atmosphere of the nineteenth century Stone seeks to recreate a significant historical and cultural moment in the development of modernity a moment that embraces the concept of Decadence while repurposing its aesthetic and social import to help navigate the fundamental changes that accompanied the dawn of the twentieth century Modernism's Queer Parents Anchit Sathi,2025-12-02 This volume offers the first critical examination of how societal pressures compelling individuals towards parenthood are experienced processed and enacted by queer characters in selected works by Thomas Mann Virginia Woolf and Marcel Proust authors now widely regarded as queer despite not having claimed such an identity in their own time The selected texts include Mann's Chaotic World and Childhood Sorrow and Death in Venice Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Orlando and key sections from Proust's In Search of Lost Time By engaging these texts in a pairwise dialogue this book argues that Mann Woolf and Proust employ a shared repertoire of motifs and narrative strategies to depict queer characters struggles with the institution of parenthood However it contends that each author articulates a distinct and nuanced approach to this theme shaped in part by the specific cultural contexts in which they wrote To substantiate this argument the monograph draws on insights from queer theory metaphor theory and the social sciences predominantly from late twentieth and early twenty first century scholarship thereby reinforcing its commitment to linking literary modernism to contemporary lived realities At the same time the analysis situates these works within the broader socio historical framework of the early twentieth century which is to say the modernist period with which these authors are conventionally associated Antimodernism and Artistic Experience Lynda Jessup,2001-01-01 Scholars in art history anthropology history and feminist media studies explore Western antimodernism of the turn of the 20th century as an artistic response to a perceived loss of authentic experience The Modernity of English Art, 1914-30 David Peters Corbett,1997 The modernity of English art reconceptualises the history of English painting from 1914 to the end of the 1920s

Whereas most accounts have tended to see the period as marked by a tension between the native tradition and Modernism this ground breaking book rethinks the 1920s by situating both Modernist and non Modernist painters within a wider cultural history Established figures such as Paul Nash Edward Wadsworth and Wyndham Lewis as well as lesser known artists like Charles Sims John Armstrong and Ethelbert White are discussed and illustrated in a series of innovative readings within this context The modernity of English art offers a new account of painting in England after 1914 and argues for a strongly revisionist view of the significance of the modern during this important but neglected period in English art

Indian Modernities Nishat Zaidi,2023-08-25 This volume studies the ways in which modernity has been conceived practiced and performed in Indian literatures from the eighteenth to the twentieth century It brings together essays on writings in Hindi Urdu Punjabi Bengali Odia Gujarati Marathi Tamil Telugu Kannada Malayalam and languages from Northeast India which form a dialogical relationship with each other in this volume The concurrence and contradictions emerging through these studies problematize the idea of modernity afresh The book challenges the dominance of colonial modernity through sociohistorical and cultural analysis of how modernity surfaces as a multifaceted phenomenon when contextualized in the multilingual ethos of India It further tracks the complex ways in which modernism in India is tied to the harvests of modernity It argues for the need to shift focus on the specific conditions that gave shape to multiple modernities within literatures produced from India A versatile collection the book incorporates engagements with not just long prose fiction but also lesser known essays research works and short stories published in popular magazines This unique work will be of interest to students and teachers of Indian writing in English Indian literatures and comparative literatures It will be indispensable to scholars of South Asian studies literary historians linguists and scholars of cultural studies across the globe

Flint on a Bright Stone Kirsten Blythe Painter,2006 Flint on a Bright Stone closes a significant gap in the history of Modernist poetry by identifying the existence of Tempered Modernism an international phenomenon exemplified by Akhmatova Rilke H D and Williams and characterized by small poems written with precision restraint simplicity equilibrium and hardness

Modernity and Technology Thomas J. Misa,Philip Brey,Andrew Feenberg,2003 The book is divided into three parts

Literary Passports Shachar Pinsker,2010-12-13 Literary Passports is the first book to explore modernist Hebrew fiction in Europe in the early decades of the twentieth century It not only serves as an introduction to this important body of literature but also acts as a major revisionist statement freeing this literature from a Zionist nationalist narrative and viewing it through the wider lens of new comparative studies in modernism The book s central claim is that modernist Hebrew prose fiction as it emerged from 1900 to 1930 was shaped by the highly charged encounter of traditionally educated Jews with the revolution of European literature and culture known as modernism The book deals with modernist Hebrew fiction as an urban phenomenon explores the ways in which the genre dealt with issues of sexuality and gender and examines its depictions of the complex relations between tradition modernity and religion

Modernism Ahmet Ersoy,Maciej

Górny, Vangelis Kechriotis, Balázs Trencsényi, Michal Kopeček, 2010-07-10 Nation's heart beats too slowly and its mind works too tediously We ought to open our windows to Europe to the wind of continental change and allow it to air our sultry home since as not all health comes from the inside not all disease comes from the outside Book Jacket Modernism and Empire Nigel Rigby, Howard J. Booth, 2000 This work explores the relationship between literary modernism and empire It asks why the art and literature of modernism flourished in 1890 to 1940 when the colonial empires of Europe were at their height yet teetering on the brink of dissolution The Passions of Modernism Anthony Cuda, 2010 This title offers an alternative approach to modernism as confronting helplessness and passivity Upending the traditional view of modernism as defined by elitism skepticism and emotional detachment Anthony Cuda argues that there is another view beneath this facade one that emphasizes modernism's deep commitment to understanding human vulnerability powerlessness and the unpredictable energies of passion In The Passions of Modernism Cuda explores how four modernist writers T S Eliot W B Yeats Virginia Woolf and Thomas Mann conceptualize passion how they dramatize its upheavals and illuminations and how it affects their ideas about the creative act Resuscitating the classical definition of passion from the Latin passio to be moved or to be acted on Cuda's study suggests that the modernist attraction to passivity arises from a desire to gauge the limits of the active mind and to rethink psychology aesthetics and theories of creativity from the perspective of the moved instead of the mover Focusing on well known texts as well as uncollected and archival materials Cuda sheds new light on four canonical writers by examining their work in terms of passion scenes vivid intense tropes situated somewhere between exhilaration and terror that recur with insistent regularity over an artist's entire career exerting an unusual psychological force on the creative mind that conjures them Modernism and Modernity in the Mediterranean World Domenico Pietropaolo, Luca Somigli, Dario Brancato, 2006 The Ethos of Modernism Esther Gabara, 2001 Theories of Modernity and Postmodernity Bryan S. Turner, 1990 This book encapsulates the recent debate on the concepts of modernity and postmodernity Arguments over modernism and its aftermath are traced to their origins in art architecture and literature The authors then focus on the contribution of sociology to this cultural dispute through the theories of Weber Simmel Habermas Lyotard and Baudrillard Throughout Theories of Modernity and Postmodernity demonstrates the connections between traditional problems of sociological theory and the contemporary debate around modernity
