William Marshal, First Earl of Pembroke and Regent of England (1216-1219) Thomas Leckie Jarman,1930

The Lais of Marie De France Marie France,2011-10-27 Marie de France fl late twelfth century is the earliest known French woman poet and her lais stories in verse based on Breton tales of chivalry and romance are among the finest of the genre Recounting the trials and tribulations of lovers the lais inhabit a powerfully realized world where very real human protagonists act out their lives against fairy tale elements of magical beings potions and beasts De France takes a subtle and complex view of courtly love whether telling the story of the knight who betrays his fairy mistress or describing the noblewoman who embroiders her sad tale on the shroud for a nightingale killed by a jealous and suspicious husband

William Marshal David Crouch,1990 This is an examination of the career of William Marshal 1st Earl of Pembroke and Strigul This book looks at his life serving under four different English monarchs beginning as tutor to Prince Henry in 1170 and finishing as regent for nine year old Henry III in 1216 The Aristocracy in England and Tuscany, 1000-1250 Peter R. Coss,2020 This volume examines the aristocracy in Tuscany and in England in the years 1000-1250 offering a new way of studying English aristocracy in this period by tracing Italian aristocratic history and then employing the same historiographic tools within English history Anglo-Norman Warfare Matthew Strickland,1992 Articles fundamental to the study of warfare in England and Normandy in the 11th and 12th centuries collected here in one volume The influence of war on late

Anglo Saxon and Anglo Norman society was dominant and all pervasive Here in this book gathered together for the first time are fundamental articles on warfare in England and Normandy in the 11th and 12th centuries combining the work of some of the foremost scholars in the field Redressing the tendency to study military institutions and obligations in isolation from the practice of war equal emphasis is given both to organisation and composition of forces and to strategy tactics and conduct of war The result is not only an in depth analysis of the nature of war itself but a study of warfare in a broader social political and cultural context The Themes dealt with largely span the period of the Conquest offering an assessment of the extent to which the Norman invasion marked radical change or a degree of continuity in the composition of armies and in methods of fighting This important collection with an introduction and select bibliography will be essential not simply for the student of medieval warfare but for all studying Anglo Norman society and its ruling warrior aristocracy whose raison d'etre was war Contributors NICHOLAS HOOPER MARJORIE CHIBNALL J C HOLT J O PRESTWICH R ALLEN BROWN JOHN GILLINGHAM JIM BRADBURY MATTHEW STRICKLAND MATTHEW BENNETT Medieval Games John Marshall Carter, 1992

Thirteenth Century England II Peter R. Coss, Simon D. Lloyd, 1988 Thirteenth Century England II continues the series which began in 1986 with the publication of the first volume of the biannual Newcastle upon Tyne conferences on thirteenth century England Important studies of aspects of English society and politics open up new areas of research and re-examine standard interpretations The Western Experience Mortimer Chambers, 1994-11 Letters and Journals of Field-Marshal Sir William Maynard Gomm... from 1799 to Waterloo, 1815 Sir William Maynard Gomm, 1881 Women Crusaders Graham McLennan, 1997 Contemporary Poets Thomas Riggs, 1995 Approximately 800 entries offer an impressive representation of living poets and invite you and your patrons to delve into an eclectic mix of remarkable talents This fully revised 6th edition of Contemporary Poets responds to and studies transformations occurring in English language poetry during the 1900s William Marshal Sidney Painter, 1967-10 Originally published in 1933 As mediaeval society was dominated by the feudal caste a biography that depicts the position activities manners and thoughts of a member of that class might do much to elucidate the history of the period This is what Sidney Painter had in mind when he wrote a William Marshal Knight Errant Baron and Regent of England The subject has proved a peculiarly fortunate one The fourth son of John Fitz Gilbert marshal of the king's court William for the first forty years of his life was a landless knight who devoted most of his time and energy to tournaments In the year 1189 by his marriage to the daughter and heiress of Earl Richard of Pembroke William became a great feudal lord with fiefs in Normandy England Wales and Ireland Thus his biography depicts the two extremes of feudal society the landless knight and the rich baron Finally in 1216 he was chosen regent of England for the young king Henry III and his biography becomes for three years the history of England Precarious Balances Charles Stewart Goodwin, 1999-04-15 Precarious Balances The Middle Ages of the Next Millennium explores a comparison of the present century and the next with the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries as a period of transition from one type of civilization to another Goodwin compares the present socio political trends with those of medieval Europe that developed the philosophy and the institutions that have dominated the last 500 years He portrays the struggle between the choices that can be made and the potential effects they can have discerning between what can and cannot be controlled Goodwin proposes plausible alternatives to short term policies that may avoid the long term adversity he envisions now He points out the downplayed realities of the twentieth century a period dominated by technological achievement and the affluence of some that actually was dominated by violence and a widening of wealth gaps This pattern he predicts will lead to a new feudalism if action is not taken to redirect the socio political tendencies now in place
