Capitalism and the Limits of Desire John Roberts, 2021-08-12 Addressing Spinoza's perennial question why do the masses fight for their servitude as if it was salvation Capitalism and the Limits of Desire examines the ways in which self love as the care of the self has become intertwined with self love as the pursuit of pleasure With ongoing austerity and misery for so many why does capitalism seem to be so insurmountable so impossible to move beyond John Roberts offers a compelling response it is because we love the love of self that capitalism enables even though it brings anxiety and self scrutiny Capitalism in the form of commodities and more importantly the online platforms through which we express ourselves has become so much of who we are of how we define self love as self pleasure that it is difficult to imagine ourselves outside of it Roberts contends that disentangling ourselves from this collapsing of self into capitalism is possible and that understanding the insidious nature of capitalist thinking even when it comes to our deepest pleasures is the starting point Using early and late Marx Lacan's distinction between pleasure and desire and the recent debate on perfectionism Hurka as his guides Roberts lays out a way for individuals to move forward
