[Edited by H.W. Llewellyn-Smith. With Illustrations.] ,1926      Index of English Literary Manuscripts Margaret M. Smith,1989-11-01 Eleven authors are included in this final part of Volume III of the Index beginning with Laurence Sterne and concluding with Edward Young It also includes the final cumulative first line index of all the verse which is described in the manuscript entries or mentioned in the Introductions in Parts 1 4 of Volume III      Writing the Lives of People and Things, AD 500-1700 Robert F.W. Smith,Gemma L. Watson,2017-05-15 Historical biography has a mixed reputation at its best it can reveal much not only about an individual but the wider context of their life and society at worst it can result in a narrowly focused work of hagiography or condemnation Yet in spite of its sometimes inferior status amongst academics biography has remained a popular genre and in recent years has developed into new and intriguing areas As the essays in this volume reveal scholars from an array of different disciplines have embraced what biography can offer them expanding the remit of biography from people to things tracing the life of their chosen object from creation to use to disposal to rediscovery The increasing concern with the physicality of manuscripts and books has also meant an awareness of and interest in the lives of these forms of material culture. Historians have also become increasingly interested in groups of individuals resulting in prosopographical studies. A book on the diversity of biography is therefore very timely, exploring the multi-disciplinary application of historical biography in the period 500-1700. It presents fourteen case studies offering new approaches to historical biography, written by early career researchers from backgrounds in archaeology, English art, architectural history, and history, demonstrating different approaches and techniques. Overall, the collection is a strong and united statement by a group of early career researchers who insist on the vitality of biography as a central concern of historians across the disciplines of the humanities. Contributors believe that the life is a fundamental medium of study for the medieval and early modern periods and thus bolsters the move back towards biography as a primary tool of medieval and early modern scholars, as well as a tool for future research for humanities scholars interested in biography.

The Musical Times, 1904      Notes and Queries, 1927      Brian Eno: Visual Music Christopher Scoates, 2013-09-24. This comprehensive monograph celebrates the visual art of renowned musician Brian Eno. Spanning more than 40 years, Brian Eno Visual Music weaves a dialogue between Eno's museum and gallery installations and his musical endeavors, all illustrated with never-before-published archival materials such as sketchbook pages, installation views, screenshots, and more. Steve Dietz, Brian Dillon, Roy Ascott, and William R. Wright contextualize Eno's contribution to new media art, while Eno himself shares insights into his process. Also included is a download code for a previously unreleased piece of music created by Eno, making this ebook a requisite for fans and collectors.
