Near Orient grade A Class I National University of Ireland Maynooth Military History and Strategic Studies course Leadership Management and Defence Studies language English abstract The thesis examines how language shaped the public discourse concerning the German ISAF mission between 2009 and 2010 It focuses on the political and strategic communication concerning the German contribution to the mission This paper examines a variety of definitions of war and discusses their applicability for the ISAF mission in Afghanistan Although traditional state centered definitions of war are still relevant in legal respects today inter state wars between two belligerent states are the exception Therefore to be useful any definition of wars have to emphasise the effects of warfare and cover inter state wars and intra state wars After a series of incidents in Afghanistan including the so called Kunduz Airstrike and the Good Friday Battle German Defence Minister Karl Theodor zu Guttenberg described the security situation in Afghanistan as kriegs hnlich war like He later progressed to describing it as war This started a controversial debate Before his pronouncements the neutral term Stabilisierungseinsatz stabilisation mission was in official use His actions stirred debate amongst the press and politicians in Germany about the International Security Assistance Force ISAF mission This debate centred on the political and military objectives in Afghanistan and the label of war Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee, 1912
