Straw For The Fire:

Straw for the Fire Theodore Roethke, 2006 American poetry could not have evolved as it did without Theodore Roethke Bloomsbury Review Straw for the Fire Theodore Roethke, 2006 There are only two passions in art there are love and hate with endless modifications Theodore Roethke At his death Theodore Roethke left behind 277 spiral notebooks full of poetry fragments aphorisms jokes memos journal entries random phrases bits of dialogue commentary and fugitive miscellany Within these notebooks Roethke allowed his mind to rove freely moment by moment moving from the practical to the transcendental from the halting to the sublime Fellow poet and colleague David Wagoner distilled these notebooks twelve linear feet of bookshelf into an energetic wise and rollicking collection that shows Roethke to be one of the truly phenomenal creative sources in American poetry From A Psychic Janitor I m sick of fumbling furtive disorganized minds like bad lawyers trying to make too many points that this is an age of criticism and these mind you tin eared punks who couldn t tell a poem from an old boot if a gun were put to their heads Cover art by United States Poet Laureate Ted Kooser Straw for the Fire

Lyons, 2020-10-27 Named One of the New York Post s Best New Books to Read FIRE IN THE STRAW is the witty and deeply felt memoir of Nick Lyons a man with an intrepid desire to reinvent himself which he does over and over Nick Lyons shape shifts from reluctant student and graduate of the Wharton School to English Professor to husband of a fiercely committed painter to ghost writer to famous fly fisherman and award winning author to father and then grandfather to Executive Editor at a large book publishing company and finally to founder and publisher of his own successful independent press Written with the same warm and earthy voice that has enthralled tens of thousands of fly fishing readers Nick weaves the disparate chapters of his life from the moment his widowed mother drops him off at a grim boarding school at the age of five where he spends three lonely and confusing years to his love of basketball and pride playing for Penn to the tumultuous period in the army and after when he found and was transformed by literature to his marriage to Mari his great love and anchor of his life Suddenly with a PhD in hand and four children Nick embarks on a complex and thrilling ride juggling family fishing teaching writing and publishing the wolf always at his door Against all odds The Lyons Press survives his children prosper his wife s art flourishes and his books and articles make him a household name Fire in the Straw is a love story a confessional and a beautiful big hearted memoir For the Fire from the Straw Heidi Lynn Nilsson, 2017 Poetry In Straw for the Fire Theodore Roethke writes that straw can feed a fire to melt down stone The poems in Heidi Lynn Nilsson s FOR THE FIRE FROM THE STRAW burn with this kind of metamorphic heat They stun with their intricate troping high lyricism and restive God hunger They rove ruthlessly metaphysically beautifully through the realms of doubt belief marriage motherhood injustice and transgression without ever once using their brilliant against the reader or resorting to oversimplified piety Like Gerald Manley Hopkins she makes manifest the complex human struggle among other matters of faith to not choose not to be I ve fought with God she writes in A Record of Loving Water to make myself I meant to be for example in the blond breakfast hour less like the dock from which we all have looked insatiable down Lisa Russ Spaar Heidi Lynn Nilsson s FOR THE FIRE FROM THE STRAW is a dark and strange extension to paraphrase Tielhard de Chardin of a spiritual being having a human experience The voice reconciles sometimes sinister thoughts in a secular air even as she seeks that ineffable from God Jesus Christ or the universe Often shocking in their beauty and forthright worrying through religious experience the poems sing like psalms Partly confessing to a silent listener and partly serving as her own inquisitor the speaker of these poems seems to be awaiting another force in the cosmos unabashed beauty Through she sometimes conjures an echo of Dickinson or her own Viking ruthlessness Nilsson uses poetry for what poetry is for the unexplained language that explains Sean Singer Straw for the Fire ; Form the Notebooks of Theodore Reothke 1943-63 ,1972 The Golden Bough: Balder the beautiful.
