Summer Before The Dark:

The Summer Before the Dark Doris Lessing, 2010-11-17 As the summer begins Kate Brown attractive intelligent forty five happily enough married with a house in the London suburbs and three grown children has no reason to expect anything will change But when the summer ends the woman she was living behind a protective camouflage of feminine charm and caring no longer exists This novel Doris Lessing s brilliant excursion into the terrifying stretch of time between youth and old age is her journey from London to Turkey to Spain from husband to lover to madness on the road to a frightening new independence and a confrontation with self that lets her finally come truly of age The Summer Before the Dark Doris Lessing, 1973 Journey Through the Dark Iben Krog Bidstrup, 2004 Beyond Innocence, Or, The Altersroman in Modern Fiction Linda A. Westervelt, 1997 In this groundbreaking work Linda A Westervelt defines an important yet previously unidentified and therefore unnamed type of novel the altersroman or age novel Fictions focusing on a protagonist s confrontation with mortality toward the end of middle age are likely to become ever more prominent in a Western world in which the average age of the population increases and more people reach late middle age and old age Working from a diverse sample of modern literature Westervelt analyzes the variety of responses to the life evaluation Some characters achieve a level of affirmation that allows renewal redirection or simply peace while others confront feelings of disgust or despair that so little time is left them Her altersromane are books about seeking wisdom though not everyone of this age becomes wise The use of the term altersroman highlights the fact that the altersroman is a classification comparable to but also clearly distinguishable from the bildungsroman wherein characters make the transition from youth to adulthood Westervelt contrasts her older protagonists characteristics with the equivalent characteristics in the bildungsroman through an examination of Don Quixote part 2 as well as six American novels The Ambassadors by Henry James The Professor s House by Willa Cather The Mansion by William Faulkner The Angle of Repose by Wallace Stegner A Book of Common Prayer by Joan Didion and Jazz by Toni Morrison These seven works though remarkably different share the common features of the altersroman Westervelt articulates the traits clearly rests them on the psychological literature and then shows in depth how the characteristics of the altersroman can enrich and more deeply inform our reading of a significant subset of modern literature that previously went unheralded Readers can use Westervelt s analysis to identify altersromane in literature other than their own and she begins this process by identifying exemplars written in other languages Beyond Innocence or The Altersroman in Modern Fiction introduces readers to the altersroman as a tool for classification and analysis and demonstrates the power and utility of that tool It offers a meaningful and enriching complement to the more established category of the bildungsroman The summer before the dark Doris May Lessing, 1975 Doris Lessing Gayle Greene, 1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure Odisea nº 15 Susana Nicolás Román, 2015-06-02 Revista de Estudios Ingleses es un anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del Departamento de Filología Inglesa y Alemana de la Universidad de Almería con el propósito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producción científica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa literatura en lengua inglesa didáctica del inglés traducción del inglés para fines específicos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses

Philosophy, Dreaming and the Literary Imagination Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2016-10-18 This book explores the intersections between dreaming and the literary imagination in light of the findings of recent neurocognitive and empirical research with the aim to lay a groundwork for an empirically informed aesthetics of dreaming Drawing on perspectives from literary theory philosophy of mind and dream research this study investigates dreaming in relation to creativity and waking states of imagination such as writing and reading stories Exploring the similarities and differences between the language of dreams and the language of literature it analyses the strategies employed by writers to create a sense of dream in literary fiction as well as the genres most conducive to this endeavour The book closes with three case studies focusing on texts by Kazuo Ishiguro Clare Boylan and John Banville to illustrate the diverse ways in which writers achieve to translate the experience and language of the dream

Shame and the Aging Woman J. Brooks Bouson, 2016-08-19 This book brings together the research findings of contemporary feminist age studies scholars shame theorists and feminist gerontologists in order to unfurl the affective dynamics of gendered ageism In her analysis of what she calls embodied shame J Brooks Bouson describes older women's shame about the visible signs of aging and the health and appearance of their bodies as they undergo the normal processes of bodily aging Examining both fictional and nonfiction works by contemporary North American and British women authors this book offers a sustained analysis of the various ways that ageism devalues and damages the identities of otherwise psychologically healthy women in our graying culture Shame theory as Bouson shows astutely explains why gendered ageism is so deeply entrenched in our culture and why even aging feminists may succumb to this distressing but sometimes hidden cultural affliction

Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis, 2007 In Adventures of the Spirit Phyllis Sternberg Perrakis brings together eleven American and Canadian literary gerontologists to examine a new kind of adventure for the older woman in literature This volume of critical essays analyzes recent works by contemporary women writers whose characters midlife and later life changes are mapped in their narratives Rather than focusing on the painful losses undergone by women of a certain age recent narratives explore a new kind of adventure of aging one that is spiritual in nature enabling new ways of being and becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice In particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey These journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory Rather they honor spirit's embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence The essays in Adventures of the Spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal Sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory These studies bring a new understanding to women s adventure of age in both literary texts and in life
