Summer To Remember:

A Summer to Remember Erika Montgomery, 2021-05-11 Erika Montgomery's A Summer to Remember is an unforgettable tale of love, loss, and finding your place that glitters as brightly as the golden age of Hollywood. Kristy Woodson Harvey USA Today Bestselling author of Feels Like Falling Best Debut Novels of Spring and Summer Library Journal Fresh Fiction Booktrib For thirty-year-old Frankie Simon, selling movie memorabilia in the shop she opened with her late mother on Hollywood Boulevard is more than just her livelihood; it's an enduring connection to the only family she has ever known. But when a mysterious package arrives containing a photograph of her mother and famous movie stars Glory Cartwright and her husband at a coastal film festival the year before Frankie's birth, her life begins to unravel in ways unimaginable. What begins is a journey along a path revealing buried family secrets, betrayals between lovers, bonds between friends. And for Frankie, as the past unlocks the present, the chance to learn that memories define who we are and that they can show us the meaning of home and the magic of true love. Experience the salty breeze of a Cape Cod summer as it sweeps through this sparkling, romantic, and timeless debut novel tinged with a love of old Hollywood. The perfect read for summer. A novel with depth, real emotions, lyrical writing, and flawed characters with whom to fall in love. New York Times bestselling author Karen White.

Try to Remember Judith Freeland, 2005-11 Try to Remember is a six-year journey through the memories and musings of a man diagnosed with Alzheimer's. It opens with a moment of Greg's forgetfulness, an early symptom of the disease that would exile him to a nursing home for the rest of his life. Mostly, it is stories told to anyone who would listen of his boyhood in the early 20th century in a small village in Minnesota, spending summers from the age of ten with harvest crews throughout the grain belt, states his early adulthood during the Great Depression and the less trumpeted dust bowl years when jobs were scarce and ill-paid. He remembers his joys during courtship, marriage, and fatherhood; his triumphs as an entrepreneur involved on the fringes of Canadian politics; his love of horses. His mind returns again and again to summers at the family lake cottage: the night a bear raided the icebox; the day he feared a daughter had drowned; the night the Northern Lights spectacularly outshone Fourth of July fireworks. The memories are funny and sad, exciting and mundane, terrifying and comforting. As scattered as his memories is his fleeting awareness that his mind was failing him. Romance Fiction
