Cycling the next morning stopping on a river bridge the Londoner hears a frantic cry and sees a man running on the river tow path as though being pursued by a wild animal I glanced back to see what his pursuer might be and then in one second the whole horror and terror of the catastrophe burst upon me Its whole horror and terror I say but not yet its magnitude I was aware at first just of a moving red wall like dull red hot molten metal I think I can recollect that my earliest idea was no more than this He must run or the moving wall will overtake him Next instant a hot wave seemed to strike my face It was just like the blast of heat that strikes one in a glasshouse when you stand in front of the boiling and seething glass in the furnace At about the same point in time I was aware I believe that the dull red wall was really a wall of fire a second wave from behind seemed to rush on and break it overlaid and outran the first one This second wave was white not red at white heat I realized Then with a burst of recognition I knew what it all meant What Ward had spoken of last night a fissure eruption How will he escape Is Ward toasted Will the torrent of molten rock follow the river valley to London Can he warn people in time to flee and save lives Will London be destroyed Annual Report of the Local Government Board Great Britain.
