The Invisible Weevil:

The Invisible Weevil Mary Karoro Okurut, 1998 A fictionalized account of the post colonial period of Ugandan history Spanning the decades of successive regimes of thinly disguised presidents Opolo Duduma Polle and Kazi Weaving together the strands of political and gender concerns this is humorous and somber work full of unforgettable episodes Africa Writes Back to Self Evan M. Mwangi, 2010-07-02 The profound effects of colonialism and its legacies on African cultures have led postcolonial scholars of recent African literature to characterize contemporary African novels as first and foremost responses to colonial domination by the West In Africa Writes Back to Self Evan Maina Mwangi argues instead that the novels are primarily engaged in conversation with each other particularly over emergent gender issues such as the representation of homosexuality and the disenfranchisement of women by male dominated governments He covers the work of canonical novelists Nadine Gordimer Chinua Achebe Ngu gi wa Thiong o and J M Coetzee as well as popular writers such as Grace Ogot David Maillu Promise Okekwe and Rebeka Njau Mwangi examines the novels self reflexive fictional strategies and their potential to refigure the dynamics of gender and sexuality in Africa and demote the West as the reference point for cultures of the Global South Women's Literature in Kenya and Uganda M. Kruger, 2011-01-03 For nearly a decade writers collectives such as Kwani Trust in Kenya and Femrite the Ugandan women writers association have dramatically reshaped the East African literary scene This text extends the purview of postcolonial literary studies by providing the long overdue critical inquiry that these writers so urgently deserve Freaks of Nature Jamie Rix, 2011-10-13 Grizzliness is out there Every child has the makings of mischievousness and can be lured into committing dastardly deeds The six stories in each of the Grizzly Tales books show the rise and hard fall of vile and villainous children We have completely reinvented Grizzly Tales for today s readers ingenious concepts to link the separate stories new design and illustrations new accessible formats but still capturing Jamie Rix s legendary brilliance for creating stories that linger in the mind long after the lights go out at night The wicked children in the fourth book thought they d take on Mother Nature but as they learned to their eternal cost she is not the sort of mother you can easily challenge Tradition and Change in Contemporary West and East African Fiction Ogaga Okuyade, 2014-08-15 The essays in this volume capture the exciting energy of the emergent novel in East and West Africa drawing on diffe rent theoretical insights to offer fresh and engaging perspectives on what has been variously termed the new wave emer gent generation and third generation Subjects addressed include the politics of identity especially when re constructed outside the homeland or when African indigenous values are eroded by globaliz ation transnationalism and the exilic condition or the self undergoes fragmen tation Other essays examine once taboo concerns including gendered accounts of same sex sexualities Most of the essays deal with shifting perceptions by African women of their social condition in patriarchy in relation to such issues as polygamy adultery male domination and the woman s quest for fulfilment and respect through access to quality education and full economic and socio political participation Themes taken up by other novels examined include the sexual exploitation of women and criminality generally and the exposure of children to violence. Likewise examined is the contemporary textualizing of orality, the trickster figure. Writers discussed include Chima Manda Ngozi Adichie, Okey Ndibe, Helon Habila, Ike Oguine, Chris Abani, Tanure Ojaide, Maik Nwosu, Unoma Azuah, Jude Dibia, Lola Shoneyin, Mary Karoro, Okurut Violet, Barungi Adaobi, Tricia Nwaubani, Abidemi Sanusi, Akachi Ezeigbo, Sefi Atta, Kaine Agary, Kojo Laing, Ahmadou Kourouma, Uwen Akpan, and Alobwed Epie. Ogaga Okuyade teaches popular folk culture, African literature and culture, African American and African diasporic studies, and the English novel in the Department of English and Literary Studies, Niger Delta University, Wilberforce Island, Nigeria. He has guest edited special issues of ARIEL and Imbizo and is the editor of Eco-Critical Literature: Regreening African Landscapes (2013). Culture and Customs of Uganda (Kefa M. Otiso, 2006-05-30) Since achieving independence from Great Britain in 1962, the East African country of Uganda has been ravaged by political turmoil and the more recent crisis of the AIDS epidemic but is now in the process of rebuilding and democratizing. Culture and Customs of Uganda is a fascinating overview of the current state of Ugandan society where largely rural ethnic groups are experiencing the pull of urban centers while the changes brought about by Western influences bear on practically every aspect of people's lives. Examples from the main ethnic groups are used to explain traditional culture and adaptations to modern life in religion, gender roles, courtship and marriage, work, education, family life, ceremonies, the arts, media, and more. This is the essential reference source to turn to for solid insight into Uganda. The wealth of detail in the coverage of the subjects above, plus the land, people, history, literature, architecture, housing, cuisine, dress, gender roles, social customs, and lifestyle, provides readers with a broad sense of the country and its inhabitants. The sensitive narrative conveys the nuances between old and new, urban and rural, elite and poor for each topic. In addition, the evolution of Ugandan peoples is superbly demonstrated. Highlights include a discussion of the ways in which adherents of world religions such as Christianity and Islam mix these with traditional African religious belief in spirits, diviners, and rainmakers. The book also explores patriarchy and the social and inheritance system that has hindered women's education and prospects and exposed them to HIV/AIDS. Finally, there is a celebration of the various forms of artistic expression such as drumming, ceremonial dance, and handicrafts, particularly ceramic pottery that have won accolades, as well as a look at artists who excel in writing poetry, producing hip hop, and painting batiks for popular consumption.

The Uganda Journal, 2000 The Novel and the Politics of Nation Building in East Africa (Tirop Peter Simatei, 2001) The author examines the works of Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Leonard Kibera, David Rubadiri, Peter Nazareth, M. G. Vassanji, Mary Okurut, Margaret Ogola, Oludhe MacGoye, Okot p Bitek, and more. The African Book Publishing Record, 2001 Boll Weevil, Or, The Laws Governing Nature and Mankind Considered as the Foundation of Rational Cultural Life (Alexander Riggs, 1905) The Official Wife (Mary Karoro Okurut, 2003) Liz is locked in a meaningless, loveless marriage with a modern-day polygamous husband. The second wife, apparently an educated and independent woman, becomes her competitor and intimacy or tenderness with her husband.
