Creating Magic Lee Cockerell,2008-10-14 It's not the magic that makes it work it's the way we work that makes it magic The secret for creating magic in our careers our organizations and our lives is simple outstanding leadership the kind that inspires employees delights customers and achieves extraordinary business results No one knows more about this kind of leadership than Lee Cockerell the man who ran Walt Disney World Resort operations for over a decade And in Creating Magic he shares the leadership principles that not only guided his own journey from a poor farm boy in Oklahoma to the head of operations for a multibillion dollar enterprise but that also soon came to form the cultural bedrock of the world's number one vacation destination But as Lee demonstrates great leadership isn't about mastering impossibly complex management theories We can all become outstanding leaders by following the ten practical common sense strategies outlined in this remarkable book As straightforward as they are profound these leadership lessons include Everyone is important Make your people your brand Burn the free fuel appreciation recognition and encouragement Give people a purpose not just a job

Combining surprising business wisdom with insightful and entertaining stories from Lee's four decades on the front lines of some of the world's best run companies Creating Magic shows all of us from small business owners to managers at every level how to become better leaders by infusing quality character courage enthusiasm and integrity into our workplace and into our lives The MAGIC of Disney, 2002 The Magic of Disneyland and Walt Disney World Valerie Childs, 1979

Captioned color photographs depict various sections of Disneyland and Walt Disney World with a brief discussion of the history of both parks The magic of Disneyland Antje Schöne, 2008-06-19 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 2 3 Dresden Technical University Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik course Basic Readings in North American Cultural Studies language English abstract Introduction Walter Elias Disney is the most influential American of the twentieth century and has become a myth He created an empire on a cartoon mouse and everything in this empire carries his signature For his achievements one could call him the founder of postmodern America a founder of an industry of fantasy that enriched the western culture That is why the first part of my essay deals with him and his company The main part is about one of his greatest realizations Disneyland Today this amusement park is one of the biggest tourist attractions in the whole world Walt Disney brought to this theme park all the skills and showmanship he had learned in three decades as a film maker He wanted to bring his Disney vision into material and physical existence as well as providing a strong dose of American ideology Disneyland represents the American dream a world of magic and illusion prosperity and happiness It is a showcase for postmodernism and the embodiment of capitalism But what makes Disneyland so magical Why are so many people visiting this amusement park After dealing shortly with the history and architecture of the park I will try to explain the success the magic and the contradictions of Disneyland Walter Elias Disney was born in 1901 in Chicago Illinois In 1906 his family moved to a farm in Missouri and in 1910 they moved to Kansas City Soon it became visible that Walt Disney was interested in movies especially of Charlie Chaplin and drawing After he left school at the age of 16 he became a volunteer ambulance driver in World War I where he served as a member of the American Red Cross Ambulance Force in France until 1919 After this experience he worked as an advertising cartoonist and started working on methods to perfect the combinations of animation and live action Walt Disney started some business but with not much success In 1923 he and his brother Roy Disney launched the Disney Brothers Studio with saved and lent money They bought a used camera rented a tiny studio in the back of a real estate office moved into a one room apartment together hired a couple of assistants and according to Walt began the process of making the name Disney famous around the world The Hidden Magic of Walt Disney World Trivia Susan Veness, 2013-10-30 Test your knowledge of Disney's little known facts and history You've been to Disney World hundreds of times and can rattle off the entire spiel for the Jungle Cruise from memory but how much do you really know about these imaginative theme parks and their attractions From the fastest rides and the tallest sculptures to the parks enchanting history and hidden gems this trivia challenge doesn't miss a single detail
