The Magus:

The Magus John Fowles, 1978 A man trapped in a millionaire's deadly game of political and sexual betrayal Filled with shocks and chilling surprises The Magus is a masterwork of contemporary literature In it a young Englishman Nicholas Urfe accepts a teaching position on a Greek island where his friendship with the owner of the island's most magnificent estate leads him into a nightmare As reality and fantasy are deliberately confused by staged deaths sensual encounters and terrifying violence Urfe becomes a desperate man fighting for his sanity and his life A work rich with symbols conundrums and labyrinthine twists of event The Magus is as thought provoking as it is entertaining a work that ranks with the best novels of modern times

The Magus John Fowles, 2004 On a remote Greek Island Nicholas Urfe finds himself embroiled in the deceptions of a master trickster As reality and illusion intertwine Urfe is caught up in the darkest of psychological games John Fowles expertly unfolds a tale that is lush with overtones

The Magus Francis Barrett, It has been a subject of ancient dispute whether or not the stars as second causes do so rule and influence man as to ingraft in his nature certain passions virtues propensities likewise if their site and configuration at this time do shew forth his future passions and pursuits and by their revolutions transits and directed aspects they point out the particular accidents of the body marriage sickness preferments and such like the which I have often revolved in my mind for many years past having been at all times in all places a warm advocate for stellary divination or astrology therefore in this place it is highly necessary that we examine how far this influence extends to man seeing that I fully admit that man is endowed with a free will from God which the stars can in no wise counteract And as there is in man the power and apprehension of all divination and wonderful things seeing that we have a complete system in ourselves therefore are we called the microcosm or little world for we carry a heaven in ourselves from our beginning for God hath sealed in us the image of himself and of all created beings we are the epitome therefore we must be careful lest we confound and mix one thing with another Nevertheless man as a pattern of the great world sympathizes with it according to the stars which agreeably to the Holy Scriptures are set for times and seasons and not as causes of this or that evil which may pervade kingdoms or private families although they do in some measure foreshew them yet they are in no wise the cause therefore I conceive in a wide different sense to what is generally understood that Stars rule men but a wise man rules the stars to which I answer that the stars do not rule men according to the vulgar and received opinion as if the stars should stir up men to murders seditions broils lusts fornications adulteries drunkenness because they say Mars and Saturn being conjunct do this and much more and many other configurations and afflictions of the two great infortunes as they are termed when the benevolent planets Jupiter Venus and Sol happen to be detrimented or afflicted therefore then they say men influenced by them are most surely excited to the commission of the vices before named yet a wise man may by the liberty of his own free will make those affections and inclinations void and this they call To rule the stars but let them know according to the sense here understood first it is not in a wise man to resist evil inclinations but

of the grace of God and we call none wise but such as are endued with grace for as we have said before all natural wisdom from the hands of man is foolishness in the sight of God which was not before understood to be a wise man fenced with grace for why should he rule the stars who has not any occasion to fear conquered inclinations therefore a natural wise man is as subject to the slavery of sin as others more ignorant than himself yet the stars do not incline him to sin God created the heavens without spot and pronounced them good therefore it is the greatest absurdity to suppose the stars by a continual inclining of us to this or that misdeed should be our tempters which we eventually make them if we admit they cause inclinations but know that it is not from without but within by sin that evil inclinations do arise according to the Scriptures Out of the heart of man proceed evil cogitations murmurs adulteries thefts murders so when man becomes depraved by sin and the indulgence of his gross and carnal appetite he then becomes the scat of the Infernal Powers which may be justly deemed a hell for then the bodily and fleshly sense obscures the bright purity and thinness of the spirit and he becomes the instrument of our spiritual enemy in the exercise of all infernal lusts and passions Therefore it is most necessary for us to know that we are to beware of granting or believing any effects from the influences of the stars more than they have naturally because there are many whom I have lately conversed with and great men too in this nation who readily affirm that the stars are the causes of any kinds of diseases inclinations and fortunes likewise that they blame the stars for all their misconduct and misfortunes

The Fictions of John Fowles Pamela Cooper,1991 This incisive and skillfully articulated study explores the complex power relationships in John Fowles s fictions particularly his handling of the pivotal subjects of art and sex Chapters on The Collector The Magus The French Lieutenant s Woman and The Ebony Tower are included and a final chapter discusses Daniel Martin Mantissa and A Maggot

Overthrowing the Old Gods Don Webb,2013-11-02 New commentaries on Aleister Crowley s Book of the Law reveal how it is connected to both Right and Left Hand Paths Examines each line of the Book of the Law in the light of modern psychology Egyptology Gurdjieff s teachings and contemporary Left Hand Path thought Explores Crowley s identification with the First Beast of Revelations as well as his adoption of the Loki archetype for becoming a vessel of love for all humanity Recasts the Cairo Working as a text of personal sovereignty and a relevant tool for personal transformation Includes commentary on the Book of the Law by Dr Michael A Aquino who served as High Priest of the Temple of Set from 1975 to 1996 Received by Aleister Crowley in April 1904 in Cairo Egypt the Book of the Law is the most provocative record of magical working in several hundred years affecting not only organizations directly associated with Crowley such as the Ordo Templi Orientis but also modern Wicca Chaos Magic and the Temple of Set Boldly defying Crowley s warning not to comment on the Book of the Law Ipsissimus Don Webb provides in depth interpretation from both Black and White Magical perspectives including commentary from Dr Michael A Aquino who served as High Priest of the Temple of Set from 1975 to 1996 Webb examines each line of the Book in the light of modern psychology Egyptology existentialism and competing occult systems such as the teachings of G I Gurdjieff and contemporary Left Hand Path thought

Discarding the common image of Crowley formulated in a spiritually unsophisticated time when the devotee of the Left Hand Path was dismissed as a selfish evil doer Webb unveils a new side of Crowley based on his adoption of the Loki archetype and his aim to become a vessel of love for all humanity In so doing he shows how the Book of the Law is connected to both Right and Left Hand Paths and reveals how Crowley s magical path of mastery over the self and Cosmos overthrew the gods of old religion which had kept humanity asleep to dream the nightmare of history Providing in depth analysis of Crowley s sources and his self identification with the First Beast of Revelation from a profound esoteric perspective Webb takes his views out of the Golden Dawn matrix within which he received the Book of the Law and radically recasts the Cairo Working as a text of personal sovereignty and a relevant tool for personal transformation
