American Aberdeen-Angus Herd Book American Angus Association,1895 The Willow Grove Laurie Sheck,2012-06-27 Laurie Sheck interweaves the contemporary with the mythic creating a realm in which such things as radios skyscrapers expressways and mannequins are at once familiar and strange immediate yet tinged with the light of distance and myth It is a realm where faces on a television newscast disappear into the undertow of hunger for the next thing and the next and mannequins stand in their angelic armor Placed at intervals throughout these pages is a series of poems entitled From The Book of Persephone poems that explore the underworld through a fractured contemporary lens depicting it as a psychological landscape of isolation and desire As Mona Van Duyn said of Laurie Sheck s previous book Io at Night When her sensibility and the reverberating myth are in perfect conjunction the extraordinary happens the mythical figure enters the poet s imagination so consumingly that it is impossible to tell whose life whose feelings fill the form on the page
