State-Local Governmental Interactions Joseph F. Zimmerman,2012-04-02 Relations between state governments and their respective local governments are of crucial importance yet they have remained largely unexplored by scholars This neglect is all the more surprising in light of the fact that most public services are provided directly to citizens by general purpose local governments who are themselves subject to varying degrees of control by their respective state governments In State Local Governmental Interactions Joseph F Zimmerman builds on work conducted for the US Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations pertaining to local government discretionary authority intergovernmental service agreements state and federal mandates and voluntary and state mandated transfers of functional responsibility He demonstrates that the degree of control states exercise over their political subdivisions varies greatly from very tight control in Vermont to relatively little control in Maine Particular emphasis is placed on the legal relationships between a state and its various types of political subdivisions The volume concludes with recommendations for the establishment of a state local governmental partnership
