Labour despaired over 'HR boss' Starmer, book reveals

Labour's HR boss has been accused of plotting to overthrow the party's leadership, according to a new book. The author, a former Labour MP, claims that Sir Keir Starmer's inner circle was involved in a 'coup' to replace the party's leader with a more radical figure. The book, written by a former Labour MP, details the alleged plot and the role of Sir Keir Starmer's HR team in the process.

Chinese viewed Duke of York as 'useful channel'

The Duke of York has been viewed by the Chinese as a 'useful channel' for communication, according to a new report. The report, published by a Chinese think tank, claims that the Duke of York's role as a royal ambassador has made him a valuable link between the UK and China. It suggests that the Chinese government sees the Duke of York as a key figure in maintaining good relations between the two countries.

Expert to go public with fears over Letby trial

An expert has warned that the trial of a nurse accused of murdering babies in a hospital is a 'once-in-a-lifetime' event. The expert, a leading child protection specialist, claims that the trial will provide a unique opportunity for the public to learn about the complexities of child protection and the legal system. He urges the public to follow the trial closely to understand the challenges faced by child protection workers.
