The Gordon Highlands:

The Gordon Highlanders Trevor Royle,2011-07-15 The Gordons recruited from the north east of Scotland and the regiment s character was moulded by men from the farming counties of Aberdeenshire Moray and Nairn It was raised in 1794 by an aristocratic landowner the Duke of Gordon whose wife played a major role in attracting recruits by riding through her husband s estates and offering a guinea and a kiss to each man who enlisted Originally raised as the 100th Highlanders it was later renumbered the 92nd Highlanders and in 1881 was amalgamated with the 75th Stirlingshire Regiment to form The Gordon Highlanders In the nineteenth century the two regiments were in constant service throughout the empire and in 1879 the 92nd Highlanders were involved in Lord Roberts historic march from Kabul to Kandahar during the fighting in Afghanistan One of the first Victoria Crosses was awarded to a Gordon Highlander Private Beach who was decorated for his supreme gallantry while serving in the Crimea in 1854 Another Victoria Cross winner was Major George White Afghanistan 1879 who went on to become a field marshal During the fighting on the north west frontier of India in 1897 Piper George Findlater was awarded the Victoria Cross for continuing to play his pipes despite being wounded and under heavy enemy fire In 1994 The Gordon Highlanders amalgamated with Queen s Own Highlanders to form The Highlanders and in 2006 became the 4th Battalion of The Royal Regiment of Scotland This is a celebratory account of the regiment s long and distinguished history

Gordon Highlanders,Peter Donald THOMSON,1921 The Gordon highlanders James Milne,1898 The Life of a Regiment Charles Greenhill Gardyne,1901 Life of a Regiment Greenhill Gardyne,David Douglas,2003-02-01 This volume of the history concerned only with the 92nd Foot was first published in 1901 and the preface to that edition is incorporated in this 2nd edition The author explains that it was his object in matters of general history merely to give the reason for the various expeditions in which the regiment was involved and in describing the operations to confine himself to the part played by it He has attached importance to the interior economy and discipline of a Highland regiment with many fascinating details on such subjects as nationality dress messing and recruiting and other regimental matters The regiment was raised by the Duke of Gordon embodied in June 1794 in Aberdeen which became the Regimental Depot and on the first muster roll all the Highland Clans were represented the greatest number being MacDonalDs followed by Camerons They didn t hang about in those days on 5th September less than three months after embodiment they embarked for Gibraltar where they arrived on 26th 25 officers781 rank and file The names of the officers and their service records are given as well as the names of the sergeants and where they had come from The Regiment began life as the 100th Foot changed to 92nd in 1798 In 1799 it won its first Battle Honour at Egmont op Zee in Holland fighting Napoleon s troops and the chapter describing this action gives a list of those killed or died of wounds with their parish and county the officers list includes wounded In 1802 a 2nd Battalion 92nd Foot was formed but eleven years later it was disbanded without going on active service The original battalion saw plenty of active service in the Napoleonic wars in Egypt Denmark the Peninsula including the awful retreat to Corunna and at Waterloo descriptions of the fighting include casualty rolls But the great strength of this history is in what might be called domestic details the life of the regiment as it is aptly titled which is a wonderful comment on the life of a soldier in a Highland regiment For instance we are given details of the rank and file from the returns of March 1807 in a battalion total of 892 43 were 6ft and over 529 were between 5ft 5 and 5ft 8 while there were 177 under 5ft 5 including two sergeants one private was over 55 he had got more than 30 years service in QM s storeman but the majority 555 were aged between 20 and 30 252 had between 12 and 14 years service and 229 between three and four years One of the appendices list all the officers as at 1st January 1813 some seventy in all giving residence or family county and career details as far as known A fascinating regimental record The Gordon Highlanders .
