The Sign Painter:

The Sign Painter Allen Say, 2000-10-30 In his Caldecott acceptance speech for GRANDFATHER S JOURNEY Allen Say told of his difficulty in separating his dreams from reality For him this separation was not as important as finding a meaning behind the contradictions and choices we all must make in life and their consequences Early one morning a boy comes into town hungry and looking for work He meets a sign painter who takes him on as a helper The boy yearns to be a painter The man offers him security The two are commissioned to paint a series of billboards in the desert Each billboard has one word Arrowstar They do not know its meaning As they are about to paint the last sign the boy looks up and sees in the distance a magnificent structure Is it real They go to find out Through a simple text and extraordinary paintings the reader learns of the temptation of safe choices and the uncertainties of following a personal dream Here Allen Say tells a haunting and provocative story of dreams and choices for readers of all ages This title has been selected as a Common Core Text Exemplar Grades 2 3 Read Aloud Story
