Trade Unionists Against Terror:

Trade Unionists Against Terror Deborah Levenson-Estrada, 2014-02-01 Deborah Levenson Estrada provides the first comprehensive analysis of how urban labor unions took shape in Guatemala under conditions of state terrorism. In Trade Unionists against Terror she explores how workers made sense of their struggle for rights in the face of death squads and other forms of violent opposition from the state. Levenson Estrada focuses especially on the case of 400 workers at the Coca Cola bottling plant in Guatemala City who in order to protect their union successfully occupied the factory for over a year beginning in 1984 while the country was under a state of siege. According to Levenson Estrada religion provided the language of resistance and workers who were engaged in what seemed to be a dead end battle constructed an identity for themselves as powerful agents of change. Based on oral histories as well as documentary sources Trade Unionists against Terror also illuminates complex relationships between urban popular culture, gender, family and workplace activism in Guatemala.

A History of Organized Labor in Panama and Central America Robert J. Alexander, 2008-07-30 This volume is a pioneering study of the history of organized labor in the Central American republics. It traces the history in the various countries from the early nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth century. It also discusses why they appeared, what organizational and ideological tendencies characterized the movement in these countries, the role of collective bargaining, the economic influence of organized labor as well as the relations of the movement in the individual countries with one another and with the broader labor movement outside of the countries involved in this volume. This City Belongs to You Heather Vrana, 2017-07-11 Introduction Do not mess with us The republic of students 1942 1952 Showcase for democracy 1953 1957 A manner of feeling 1958 1962 Go forth and teach all 1963 1977 Combatants for the common cause 1976 1978 Student nationalism without a government 1977 1980 Coda Ah van los estudiantes 1980 present Central America's Forgotten History Aviva Chomsky, 2021-04-20 Restores the region's fraught history of repression and resistance to popular consciousness and connects the United States interventions and influence to the influx of refugees seeking asylum today. At the center of the current immigration debate are migrants from Central America fleeing poverty, corruption and violence in search of refuge in the United States. In Central America's Forgotten History Aviva Chomsky answers the urgent question: How did we get here? Centering the centuries-long intertwined histories of US expansion and Indigenous and Central American struggles against inequality and oppression, Chomsky highlights the pernicious cycle of colonial and neocolonial development policies that promote cultures of violence and forgetting without any accountability or restorative reparations. Focusing on the valiant struggles for social and economic justice in Guatemala, Nicaragua, El Salvador and Honduras, Chomsky restores these vivid and gripping events to popular consciousness. Tracing the roots of displacement and migration in Central America to the Spanish conquest and bringing us to the present day, she concludes that the more immediate roots of migration from El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras lie in the wars and in the US interventions of the 1980s and the peace accords of the 1990s that set the stage for neoliberalism in Central America Chomsky also examines how and why histories and memories are suppressed and the impact of losing historical memory Only by erasing history can we claim that Central American countries created their own poverty and violence while the United States enjoyment and profit from their bananas coffee mining clothing and export of arms are simply unrelated curiosities Our of Their Own Mouths Samuel Gompers,William English Walling,1921 The Communist International Between the Fifth & the Sixth World Congresses, 1924-8 Communist International,1928 Report Red International of Labor Unions. 4th Congress,1928 International Report of the Trade Union Movement International Federation of Trade Unions,1910 The International Trade Union Movement ,1921 International Press Correspondence ,1926 Report of the Fourth Congress of the R.I.L.U.
