Transcribing Lacans Seminars:

Transcribing Lacan's Lectures Maria Pierrakos, 2006 A criticism of the Lacanian system this book details about a curious phenomena of our time how a large part of the French intelligentsia came to be captivated by the pathetic spectacle of an old man tossing bits of string representing Borromean knots to his audience and of hands stretching out to receive them like children at the circus

Jacques Lacan and Education Donyell L. Roseboro, 2008-01-01 This is an introductory level text with emphasis on Lacan's theoretical relationship to education and which uses Lacan's theories as a springboard for a different educational discourse one that forces us to assess inward rather than outward To move beyond the linear nature of schools a context exacerbated by developmental psychologists like Piaget and Erikson who theorized that we can understand children's development in stages the author argues that Lacan's theories allow us to holistically educate to teach cognizant of the relationship between interior and exterior spaces between the unspoken and the heard The text serves four purposes 1 to translate Lacan's primary ideas into language appropriate for introductory level college students 2 to examine identity in ways that are relevant across disciplines 3 to re frame Lacan's work with post structuralist and postmodern theories and in so doing create a distinctive analysis of the self predefined yet reinvented and 4 to juxtapose Lacan's work with post formal thinking and theorize about his relevance to public education This book is purposefully organized with specific emphasis on Lacan's work as a teacher and the ways in which his theories complicate current accountability standards in the United States which insist that good teaching and learning is quantifiable The author foregrounds Lacan's concepts of identity and language and analyzes those in parallel to the discourses of democratic education Lacan's theories do provide some indelible possibilities for public education in the twenty first century Considering his relevance to post structuralism post formalism post colonialism and postmodernism a Lacanian perspective of public education would defy the current standardization of curriculum in the wake of No Child Left Behind NCLB mandates Using Lacan the author re envisions public education as a process which encourages the distinctiveness of students challenges normative assumptions about what a good student is and demands that teachers facilitate student understanding of multiple truths but that teachers also engage in an honest reconstruction of history one that acknowledges the brutality of conquest the arrogance of imperialism and the illusiveness elusiveness of peace Using the South African Truth and Reconciliation process as a framework the author ends by constructing a model for public education which is grounded in truth telling in public spaces witnessing as a political practice and educating as purposeful work A Lacanian post formal curriculum at its core thus requires that we seek and identify truths we work to become integrated beings by hearing the unconscious that which we do not want to or cannot face and that we educate for goodness and wholeness This book is ultimately a call to re envision the current public educational system in the U S a call to admit that it has inexcusably failed far too many children and a call to construct entirely different possibilities critically informed set of analyses of Lacan's ethics seminar and astute reflections about what Lacan's ethics offer to the field of psychoanalytic thought today. The volume interrogates the seminar with fresh voices and situated curiosities and perspectives making for a compellingly exciting range of explorations of the crucial matters related to an ethics of psychoanalysis. The chapters question and tease out the paradoxes Lacan draws attention to in his seminar of 1959-1960 and in addition they offer radical engagements with the seminar in light of theories of racism, inequality, capitalism, education, and subjectivity. The key elements in Lacan's seminar are explained, debated, and reconsidered with Antigone, das Ding, and the inevitable ne ceder pas sur son d sir duly unpacked, examined, and ruminated upon. Studying Lacan's Seminar VII will be of interest to psychoanalytic scholars and students of Lacanian psychoanalysis as well as psychoanalytic therapists and analysts. It will also be of interest to scholars and students of politics, philosophy, and studies at the intersections of racism, film, feminism, sociology, gender, and queer theory. Lacan's Seminar on Anxiety Roberto Harari, 2001-05-17. Designed for novices as well as students of psychology and literary criticism, these systematic lectures do much to clarify Lacan's groundbreaking work on the birth of the subject and its links with Freud's theory of drives. Moreover, they answer some of the criticisms that have been leveled at Lacan by those of psychoanalysis unable or unwilling to incorporate his ideas.

Jacques Lacan & Co Elisabeth Roudinesco, 1990-10-29. Roudinesco provides a finely drawn map of the intellectual debates within French psychoanalysis, especially under the influence of the German emigrants during the 1930s and 1940s. She is a good historian in that she provides not only a narrative history but also extensive passages from Lacan's own oral history interviews with the various figures, so that we have not only her commentary but some flavor of the original documentation. Many of the quotes are gems. Sander Gilman, Bulletin of the History of Medicine. On the History and Transmission of Lacanian Psychoanalysis Chris Vanderwees, 2023-10-20. On the History and Transmission of Lacanian Psychoanalysis addresses key questions about the history and transmission of Jacques Lacan's work in North America through discussions with experienced psychoanalysts who are also trained psychiatrists, psychologists, and psychotherapists. Chris Vanderwees presents conversations with clinicians about their psychoanalytic formation and about the development of Lacanian psychoanalysis in North America over the past several decades. With oral narrative brought out through the technique of free association, then transcribed and annotated, each discussion is a trace of Vanderwees' encounter with each clinician and the result of collaborative efforts involving speech, writing, translation, and transmission. The conversational tone makes these discussions accessible not only for those already well-versed in Lacan's thinking but also for anyone discovering his work for the first time. The range of contributions spans both French and English-speaking Canada, the United States, and Mexico. Complemented by On the Theory and Clinic of Lacanian Psychoanalysis, this book of conversations conveys the diversity of historical and pedagogical perspectives on theory and practice as inspired by Lacan's system of thought. It will be of great interest to all psychoanalytic practitioners as well as academics and scholars of psychoanalysis. The Seductions of
