

Different Types of Communication

There are different forms of communication, each serving a distinct purpose in our daily lives.

Verbal

Verbal is one of the most basic forms of communication. It involves using spoken or written language to convey messages between individuals.

Non-verbal

Non-verbal is a powerful type of communication skill that we often overlook in our daily interactions. It includes everything from facial expression to body language, gestures, and even our clothes.

Written

As the name suggests, written communication involves conveying information through written words. Whether it's an email, a text message, or a letter, written communication helps individuals to express their thoughts and ideas clearly and precisely.

Group Communication

Group communication refers to the exchange of information and ideas among three or more individuals. It involves sharing thoughts, opinions, and feedback within a team or organization. Effective group communication fosters collaboration, problem-solving, and decision-making.

Visual

Visual communication incorporates the use of images, shapes, colors, and other visual elements to convey information or messages.

Feedback

Feedback communication is an essential aspect of effective communication. It helps in both personal and professional settings.

Mass Communication

Mass Communication is a powerful tool that connects millions across the globe.
